TIGER GRIDDERS GAIN FIRST WIN, 14-12

HIGH FLYER — A railroad car rests on top of a locomotive in Stuttgart, West Germany, after a collision in which nine persons were killed and 30 others injured. The accident occurred in heavy fog as one train came in on a track on which the other was waiting to depart. The impact forced the coach up in the air.

2 U.S. Railroad Giants Talking About Merger

New York Central, Pennsy Deal Would Net $5½ Billion Firm

NEW YORK (AP) — Two rail giants, their profits off, are considering a merger that would create the world's largest railroad in revenue and assets.

Citing common problems and changed economic conditions, the Pennsylvania and New York Central railroads Friday announced they have begun studies looking toward a possible merger into one consolidated system.

The two roads are the largest in the country, based on annual revenue. Their combined assets are in excess of $5½ billion.

The announcement by James M. Symes, president of the Pennsylvania, and Alfred E. Perlman, president of the Central, was made after the New York and other stock exchanges had closed for the day.

Stocks of the railroads on the New York exchange were both off 12.5 cents. Previous announcements of planned mergers have been reflected on the exchange by flurries of activity.

* * *

WALL STREET observers took a rather skeptical view of the proposed merger, pointing out the many roadblocks that would have to be cleared — approval by the Interstate Commerce Commission and the possibility that the Justice Department could intervene on antitrust grounds.

Railroad and investment men indicated it could be years before the Central and Pennsylvania operated as a single company on the same tracks.

The ICC has long held that competing lines should not be permitted to merge. The commission has refused to approve the effort by Robert R. Young, chairman of the Central, to merge the Central and the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway because, the ICC said, the result would be loss of "extensive competition" between the two railroads.

The Pennsylvania and Central compete in some areas, chiefly between New York and Chicago.

In Washington, both the ICC and the Justice Department declined comment Friday night on the merger possibility. In proposed railroad mergers, the ICC investigates to determine if, among other things, the proposal would be in the public interest. The Justice Department usually intervenes to follow the testimony presented.

A merger would apply both to the physical properties and the financial structure. It would enable the roads to consolidate terminal facilities and eliminate duplicate rail and yard facilities.

* * *

A MERGER of the roads would create the 11th largest corporation in the country.

Earnings of both railroads plummeted this year. In the first nine months of the year the Pennsylvania had net earnings of $19,581,366 after taxes, a sharp drop from $31,291,852 in the same peroid last year.

The Central's net earnings fell to $8,759,018 after taxes in the first nine months of this year from $28,172,388 last year.

Robbins Requests Specific Charges In Garbage Suit

A hearing on a motion to require George Bidinger to make his petition requesting $190,000 damages against the City of Circleville more definite and certain has been scheduled for 11 a. m. November 20 in Common Pleas Court.

The motion, made by City Solicitor Kenneth Robbins, asks the court to order Bidinger to name the specific acts which he has alleged City officials committed to prevent execution of his exclusive garbage hauling contract with the City.

Bidinger, of Pike County, filed his damage suit against the city last month. He charged that City officials "wilfully and maliciously encouraged independent haulers to haul garbage and rubbish."

According to Bidinger, the City breached its franchise contract with him by not enforcing the so-called garbage ordinance which prohibits anyone other than the franchise holder from hauling or collecting garbage in Circleville.

* * *

ON OCTOBER 26 Bidinger quit his local garbage collection altogether. He said that he had lost money since he began operations last spring. His trucks were repossessed by a Waverly bank and he shut down his Canal Rd. dump.

In seven months Bidinger had gotten only 202 customers out of an estimated 3,200 in the city.

The Pike County man was awarded the exclusive franchise by the city last January. Nine independent haulers, however, asked for an injunction to prevent Bidinger from operating.

A permanent injunction was not granted, but private haulers kept their routes and continued hauling, although the city ordinance stated it was against the law for them to do so.

U.N. Diplomats See Red Loss In Syrian Fuss

Arab Nation Quits Debate over Alleged Actions by Turkey

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—Diplomats speculated today that Russia may have lost more than she gained by trying to make a major crisis out of Syria's border dispute with Turkey.

While the Soviets managed to get considerable propaganda mileage out of the Middle East debate, U. N. delegates said, Russia also stirred resentment among some of the nations they most wanted to win over.

General Assembly debate ended abruptly Friday when Syria said she was willing to leave without any action for the present her Soviet-backed charge that Turkey planned to attack her.

A number of Arab delegates privately expressed resentment over being virtually forced, through their pledge of Arab unity, to back a cause for which they had little stomach.

Most Arab leaders wanted Syria to accept Saudi Arabian King Saud's mediation offer and felt Russia was to blame for Syria's refusal to do so. Turkey accepted the offer.

Even India's V. K. Krishna Menon, who rarely criticizes Soviet actions, showed little apparent liking for the Soviet war charges and tried to get Syria to settle her difference with Turkey over a conference table.

Russia's charge that the United States was trying to goad Turkey into war against Syria had some initial effect on Arab-Asian leaders. But when the Soviets announced the supposed invasion would take place last Monday and the day passed without incident, delegates became dubious about the Red charges.

There was some feeling the Kremlin may have staged the debate at this time to detract attention from the anniversary of the Hungarian revolt that prompted the last Assembly to denounce Russian aggression.

One Western delegate expressed the view that the debate and Russia's obvious stage managing of Syria's case had one good effect—to show Middle East delegates what life would be like in the Soviet orbit.

Arledge Romps 93 Yards for Winning Score

Homecoming Crowd Thrills at Vital Last-Period Jaunt

By PAUL SMALLWOOD
Herald Staff Writer

A sensational 93-yard run by Walt Arledge in the final quarter gave Circleville's Tigers their first win of the season and a 14-12 victory over Rock Hill last night on the local gridiron.

It was homecoming for Circleville and each loyal partisan left the field happy, thanks to Arledge's gallop, one of the longest in CHS history. It came at a time when all seemed lost for the Tigers. The crucial sprint came in the final eight minutes of play with Circleville trailing, 12-7.

With minutes of the fourth quarter ticking away, Circleville stopped a Rock Hill drive on the three-yard line. Arledge picked up three and Hosler one to move the ball to the CHS seven.

On the next play Hosler pitched to Arledge running wide around his own left end. Picking up a couple of nice blocks, the fleet right halfback turned the corner, dodged a couple more tacklers and set sail for the goalline tight-roping the south side of the field.

* * *

ROCK HILL'S safetyman loomed large at about midfield, but Arledge quickly changed pace, passed the tackler and outran him to the end zone.

The victory didn't come easy, for the Rock Hill gridders commanded most of the first three quarters and part of the fourth. The visitors scored the first time they gained possession of the ball in the opening quarter. The Tigers retaliated in the same period to gain a 7-6 lead but Rock Hill came back to tally again in the third stanza and take a 12-7 margin.

Circleville got off to a bad start, fumbling on the first play after kickoff, with Rock Hill recovering. Seven plays later the visitors moved 40 yards for the first touchdown of the evening.

The score came on a three-yard dash by quarterback Dick White. Charles Bowling's run for extra point was short and Rock Hill lead 6-0.

The Tigers took the kickoff and promptly marched 68 yards in 10 plays. The drive was sparked by Hosler who rambled 35 yards on a keeper to the opponents' 12-yard line. Four plays later Hosler sneaked over from one yard out and guard Asa Elsea booted the extra point to give the locals a 7-6 lead.

The second quarter was scoreless although each team threatened once Rock Hill drove to the CHS but fumbled with Dick Bircher recovering for the locals. However, Circleville committed a miscue on the next play and the visitors recovered on the Tiger nine.

Gordon, Hedges In Mayor Contest

Two experienced men running for mayor, headline Tuesday's election. Ben Gordon, Democrat, President of council, and Robert Hedges, Republican, incumbent, face each other in a showdown battle.

Bob Hedges is running for his third straight term, being first elected in 1954. Hedges, 43, was born in Ashville, graduating from Ashville High School in 1932. He received a Degree in Optometry from Ohio State University in 1936.

During World War II, Hedges served four years in the U. S. Navy, honorably discharged as a lieutenant in 1945. Wife Duffy and children Sharon and Bobby make up Bob's family, who reside at 836 N. Court St.

If elected, Hedges promises to carry out the sewer projects, attempt to make municipal improvements under present budget, and continue to build the best and most modern city government without any additional taxes, except for the present one-mill levy, which is up for voter approval Tuesday. Hedges maintains the levy is necessary to balance the city budget.

ROBERT E. HEDGES

Incumbent Hedges will endeavor to improve street and safety conditions and provide the public with additional police and fire protection. If possible, he wants to replace some of the obsolete equipment now being used by the Police Department.

* * *

HEDGES STATES, "I definitely believe we have made progress in my past two administrations and I feel that if I am elected we will continue to move forward in developing a better city in which to live."

Ben Gordon, 53, is running for mayor for the fourth time in his political career. Gordon, a Circleville native, was born in 1904. He graduated from Circleville High School in 1922 and immediately entered business with his father at Circleville Iron and Metal.

In 1925 Gordon established his auto accessory store which has been functioning since. It is noteworthy that Ben has been a close personal friend of Ted Lewis since childhood.

Ex-mayor Gordon has been active in the city political scene since 1933 when he was elected to council on the old Citizens League platform. Serving in this capacity until 1941, Ben then became mayor and served for three consecutive terms. In 1951 Gordon was elected President of council and maintains that position at present.

BEN H. GORDON

Gordon lives on Northridge Road with wife, Edith, and son, Larry.

Gordon briefly states that he is chiefly interested in the betterment of streets, and sewers. Improvement in the maintenance of municipal parks will be his "pet" project. Ben also promises to keep within the allotted budget.

Bank Prexy's Son Accused In Shortage

NEW PHILADELPHIA (AP) — A routine check of the books has turned up a shortage of about $35,000 at the Oxford Bank of nearby Newcomerstown and resulted in dismissal of the cashier.

No charges have been filed against William R. Palmer, 32, cashier for the last three years and son of the bank's president, L. B. Palmer.

The elder Palmer said his son, daughter-in-law and their two children left for Detroit late Thursday after the bank's board of directors dismissed the cashier for what the bank described as "discrepancies found in bank records."

The FBI entered the case several days ago and its continuing its investigation.

"I've been all broken up about it," said the elder Palmer, who said he was on hand when his son, a church choir member, admitted the shortage Monday.

R. E. McDaniel, first deputy superintendent of banks in Ohio, said in Columbus Friday night that when a bank examiner approached young Palmer Monday about irregularities turned up in a routine examination of records, the cashier told the examiner of the $35,000 discrepancy. A complete audit indicates the $35,000 figure is approximately correct.

Bricker Puts OK on Liberal Education

WILBERFORCE (AP)—Sen. Bricker (R-Ohio) Friday defended the role of broad, liberal education in the age of specialization.

In a prepared speech at the annual fall convocation at Wilberforce University, Bricker said:

"Only by means of a liberal education will you be able to participate fully in the heritage of western civilization. In no other way can you link yourself to the great chain of intellectual life."

Bricker said he disagreed with the criticism that a liberal education "teaches tolerance of all views and doctrines without arriving at any definite conclusions."

"A liberal education," the senator said, "is the disciplining of free minds; a tolerant person is one who knowing what is true, believes that even error is entitled to a hearing in the court of public opinion."

He said the need for liberal minds is greater today than ever before as a result of the tremendous advances and changes made in human life by science.

"I assure you that we are standing at the threshhold of a revolution more momentous even than the industrial revolution," Sen. Bricker said.

Man Buried In City Dump Misses Death

GLENDALE, Calif. (AP) — While helping unload rubbish from the back of a dump truck, Richard Alegria lost his footing and toppled into the refuse pit. The truck's load of debris (five tons of it) spilled on top of him.

Alegria, 31, was completely buried under the trash Friday. The truck drove away from the city incinerator pit. The crew Alegria was working with failed to notice he was missing.

A huge power shovel began eating into the trash that covered Alegria. Load after load was lifted and dropped into the white-hot incinerator.

Finally the shovel's jaws bit into the debris and clamped shut six inches above the trapped rubbish worker. Another rip by the shovel and Alegria would have been dropped into the incinerator—or mangled in the jaws.

Instead, the shovel merely uncovered Alegria, who climbed to safety. He was treated for abrasions.

'Humiliation' Of Zhukov Seen Readied

Red Chinese Marshal Quoted by Pravda as Kremlin Sets Sights

LONDON (AP)—Soviet leaders today enlisted the support of a Red Chinese marshal in what looked like a Kremlin move preparing the Russian people for the humiliation of war hero Marshal Georgi Zhukov.

Pravda, the Soviet Communist newspaper, gave a significant display to an article by Chinese Marshal Liu Po-cheng stressing the importance of party leadership over Communist armed forces, reports from Moscow said.

The article followed the general lines of a campaign in the Soviet press since Zhukov was summarily relieved one week ago of his post as Soviet defense minister.

Moscow was still silent on the reasons for Zhukov's ouster but speculation was rife in Moscow that he resisted the work of party agents in the army.

Reports reaching the West indicated Kremlin leaders were consolidating their position before speaking out. A purge of military friends of the ousted soldier is underway, reports said.

REPORTS OF plans to bury Zhukov in an insignificant assignment came from Belgrade. But the Belgrade reports added that Zhukov is believed fighting behind the scenes to avoid banishment.

Private telephone conversations from Belgrade to foreigners in Moscow reportedly confirmed that Zhukov had been expelled from the Presidium and the Central Committee of the Communist Party. Yugoslavs expected an announcement of this from Moscow tonight.

2 U.S. Railroad Giants Talking About Merger

New York Central, Pennsy Deal Would Net $5½ Billion Firm

NEW YORK (AP) — Two rail giants, their profits off, are considering a merger that would create the world's largest railroad in revenue and assets.

Citing common problems and changed economic conditions, the Pennsylvania and New York Central railroads Friday announced they have begun studies looking toward a possible merger into one consolidated system.

The two roads are the largest in the country, based on annual revenue. Their combined assets are in excess of $5½ billion.

The announcement by James M. Symes, president of the Pennsylvania, and Alfred E. Perlman, president of the Central, was made after the New York and other stock exchanges had closed for the day.

Stocks of the railroads on the New York exchange were both off 12.5 cents. Previous announcements of planned mergers have been reflected on the exchange by flurries of activity.

* * *

WALL STREET observers took a rather skeptical view of the proposed merger, pointing out the many roadblocks that would have to be cleared — approval by the Interstate Commerce Commission and the possibility that the Justice Department could intervene on antitrust grounds.

Railroad and investment men indicated it could be years before the Central and Pennsylvania operated as a single company on the same tracks.

The ICC has long held that competing lines should not be permitted to merge. The commission has refused to approve the effort by Robert R. Young, chairman of the Central, to merge the Central and the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway because, the ICC said, the result would be loss of "extensive competition" between the two railroads.

The Pennsylvania and Central compete in some areas, chiefly between New York and Chicago.

In Washington, both the ICC and the Justice Department declined comment Friday night on the merger possibility. In proposed railroad mergers, the ICC investigates to determine if, among other things, the proposal would be in the public interest. The Justice Department usually intervenes to follow the testimony presented.

A merger would apply both to the physical properties and the financial structure. It would enable the roads to consolidate terminal facilities and eliminate duplicate rail and yard facilities.

* * *

A MERGER of the roads would create the 11th largest corporation in the country.

Earnings of both railroads plummeted this year. In the first nine months of the year the Pennsylvania had net earnings of $19,581,366 after taxes, a sharp drop from $31,291,852 in the same peroid last year.

The Central's net earnings fell to $8,759,018 after taxes in the first nine months of this year from $28,172,388 last year.

Robbins Requests Specific Charges In Garbage Suit

A hearing on a motion to require George Bidinger to make his petition requesting $190,000 damages against the City of Circleville more definite and certain has been scheduled for 11 a. m. November 20 in Common Pleas Court.

The motion, made by City Solicitor Kenneth Robbins, asks the court to order Bidinger to name the specific acts which he has alleged City officials committed to prevent execution of his exclusive garbage hauling contract with the City.

Bidinger, of Pike County, filed his damage suit against the city last month. He charged that City officials "wilfully and maliciously encouraged independent haulers to haul garbage and rubbish."

According to Bidinger, the City breached its franchise contract with him by not enforcing the so-called garbage ordinance which prohibits anyone other than the franchise holder from hauling or collecting garbage in Circleville.

* * *

ON OCTOBER 26 Bidinger quit his local garbage collection altogether. He said that he had lost money since he began operations last spring. His trucks were repossessed by a Waverly bank and he shut down his Canal Rd. dump.

In seven months Bidinger had gotten only 202 customers out of an estimated 3,200 in the city.

The Pike County man was awarded the exclusive franchise by the city last January. Nine independent haulers, however, asked for an injunction to prevent Bidinger from operating.

A permanent injunction was not granted, but private haulers kept their routes and continued hauling, although the city ordinance stated it was against the law for them to do so.

U.N. Diplomats See Red Loss In Syrian Fuss

Arab Nation Quits Debate over Alleged Actions by Turkey

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—Diplomats speculated today that Russia may have lost more than she gained by trying to make a major crisis out of Syria's border dispute with Turkey.

While the Soviets managed to get considerable propaganda mileage out of the Middle East debate, U. N. delegates said, Russia also stirred resentment among some of the nations they most wanted to win over.

General Assembly debate ended abruptly Friday when Syria said she was willing to leave without any action for the present her Soviet-backed charge that Turkey planned to attack her.

A number of Arab delegates privately expressed resentment over being virtually forced, through their pledge of Arab unity, to back a cause for which they had little stomach.

Most Arab leaders wanted Syria to accept Saudi Arabian King Saud's mediation offer and felt, Russia was to blame for Syria's refusal to do so. Turkey accepted the offer.

Even India's V. K. Krishna Menon, who rarely criticizes Soviet actions, showed little apparent liking for the Soviet war charges and tried to get Syria to settle her difference with Turkey over a conference table.

Russia's charge that the United States was trying to goad Turkey into war against Syria had some initial effect on Arab-Asian leaders. But when the Soviets announced the supposed invasion would take place last Monday and the day passed without incident, delegates became dubious about the Red charges.

There was some feeling the Kremlin may have staged the debate at this time to detract attention from the anniversary of the Hungarian revolt that prompted the last Assembly to denounce Russian aggression.

One Western delegate expressed the view that the debate and Russia's obvious stage managing of Syria's case had one good effect—to show Middle East delegates what life would be like in the Soviet orbit.

Bricker Puts OK on Liberal Education

WILBERFORCE (AP)—Sen. Bricker (R-Ohio) Friday defended the role of broad, liberal education in the age of specialization.

In a prepared speech at the annual fall convocation at Wilberforce University, Bricker said:

"Only by means of a liberal education will you be able to participate fully in the heritage of western civilization. In no other way can you link yourself to the great chain of intellectual life."

Bricker said he disagreed with the criticism that a liberal education "teaches tolerance of all views and doctrines without arriving at any definite conclusions."

"A liberal education," the senator said, "is the disciplining of free minds; a tolerant person is one who knowing what is true, believes that even error is entitled to a hearing in the court of public opinion."

He said the need for liberal minds is greater today than ever before as a result of the tremendous advances and changes made in human life by science.

"I assure you that we are standing at the threshhold of a revolution more momentous even than the industrial revolution," Sen. Bricker said.

Man Buried In City Dump Misses Death

GLENDALE, Calif. (AP) — While helping unload rubbish from the back of a dump truck, Richard Alegria lost his footing and toppled into the refuse pit. The truck's load of debris (five tons of it) spilled on top of him.

Alegria, 31, was completely buried under the trash Friday. The truck drove away from the city incinerator pit. The crew Alegria was working with failed to notice he was missing.

A huge power shovel began eating into the trash that covered Alegria. Load after load was lifted and dropped into the white-hot incinerator.

Finally the shovel's jaws bit into the debris and clamped shut six inches above the trapped rubbish worker. Another rip by the shovel and Alegria would have been dropped into the incinerator—or mangled in the jaws.

Instead, the shovel merely uncovered Alegria, who climbed to safety. He was treated for abrasions.

Arledge Romps 93 Yards for Winning Score

Homecoming Crowd Thrills at Vital Last-Period Jaunt

By PAUL SMALLWOOD
Herald Staff Writer

A sensational 93-yard run by Walt Arledge in the final quarter gave Circleville's Tigers their first win of the season and a 14-12 victory over Rock Hill last night on the local gridiron.

It was homecoming for Circleville and each loyal partisan left the field happy, thanks to Arledge's gallop, one of the longest in CHS history. It came at a time when all seemed lost for the Tigers. The crucial sprint came in the final eight minutes of play with Circleville trailing, 12-7.

With minutes of the fourth quarter ticking away, Circleville stopped a Rock Hill drive on the three-yard line. Arledge picked up three and Hosler one to move the ball to the CHS seven.

On the next play Hosler pitched to Arledge running wide around his own left end. Picking up a couple of nice blocks, the fleet right halfback turned the corner, dodged a couple more tacklers and set sail for the goalline tight-roping the south side of the field.

ROCK HILL'S safetyman loomed large at about midfield, but Arledge quickly changed pace, passed the tackler and outran him to the end zone.

The victory didn't come easy, for the Rock Hill gridders commanded most of the first three quarters and part of the fourth. The visitors scored the first time they gained possession of the ball in the opening quarter. The Tigers retaliated in the same period to gain a 7-6 lead but Rock Hill came back to tally again in the third stanza and take a 12-7 margin.

Circleville got off to a bad start, fumbling on the first play after kickoff, with Rock Hill recovering. Seven plays later the visitors moved 40 yards for the first touchdown of the evening.

The score came on a three-yard dash by quarterback Dick White. Charles Bowling's run for extra point was short and Rock Hill lead 6-0.

The Tigers took the kickoff and promptly marched 68 yards in 10 plays. The drive was sparked by Hosler who rambled 35 yards on a keeper to the opponents' 12-yard line. Four plays later Hosler sneaked over from one yard out and guard Asa Elsea booted the extra point to give the locals a 7-6 lead.

The second quarter was scoreless although each team threatened once Rock Hill drove to the CHS but fumbled with Dick Bircher recovering for the locals. However, Circleville committed a miscue on the next play and the visitors recovered on the Tiger nine.

Gordon, Hedges In Mayor Contest

Two experienced men running for mayor, headline Tuesday's election. Ben Gordon, Democrat, President of council, and Robert Hedges, Republican, incumbent, face each other in a showdown battle.

Bob Hedges is running for his third straight term, being first elected in 1954. Hedges, 43, was born in Ashville, graduating from Ashville High School in 1932. He received a Degree in Optometry from Ohio State University in 1936.

During World War II, Hedges served four years in the U. S. Navy, honorably discharged as a lieutenant in 1945. Wife Duffy and children Sharon and Bobby make up Bob's family, who reside at 836 N. Court St.

If elected, Hedges promises to carry out the sewer projects, attempt to make municipal improvements under present budget, and continue to build the best and most modern city government without any additional taxes, except for the present one-mill levy, which is up for voter approval Tuesday. Hedges maintains the levy is necessary to balance the city budget.

ROBERT E. HEDGES

Incumbent Hedges will endeavor to improve street and safety conditions and provide the public with additional police and fire protection. If possible, he wants to replace some of the obsolete equipment now being used by the Police Department.

* * *

HEDGES STATES, "I definitely believe we have made progress in my past two administrations and I feel that if I am elected we will continue to move forward in developing a better city in which to live."

Ben Gordon, 53, is running for mayor for the fourth time in his political career. Gordon, a Circleville native, was born in 1904. He graduated from Circleville High School in 1922 and immediately entered business with his father at Circleville Iron and Metal.

In 1925 Gordon established his auto accessory store which has been functioning since. It is noteworthy that Ben has been a close personal friend of Ted Lewis since childhood.

Ex-mayor Gordon has been active in the city political scene since 1933 when he was elected to council on the old Citizens League platform. Serving in this capacity until 1941, Ben then became mayor and served for three consecutive terms. In 1951 Gordon was elected President of council and maintains that position at present.

BEN H. GORDON

Gordon lives on Northridge Road with wife, Edith, and son, Larry.

Gordon briefly states that he is chiefly interested in the betterment of streets, and sewers. Improvement in the maintenance of municipal parks will be his "pet" project. Ben also promises to keep within the allotted budget.

Homecoming Queen Gets Band Salute

Homecoming Queen Carole Weiler and her court and the Circleville and Rock Hill bands presented an intertaining halftime show on the local gridiron last night.

Miss Weiler and her attendants, Miss Sharon Hedges and Miss Connie Butcher, were saluted by both bands much to the delight of all fans present.

The queen and court moved onto the gridiron at halftime riding in shiny convertibles. Tehir escorts were Stooge Club members Bill Dickenson, Jerry Leist and Cal Ellis.

Rock Hill's band presented an interesting show prior to the queen's entry. Fans especially were pleased with a routing dealing with Circleville's own Ted Lewis. Naturally the songs "When My Baby Smiles at Me" and "Me and My Shadow" were included in the program.

THE CHS band, directed by Truman Eberly and led on the field by Mary Ann Edstrom, pointed pointed their activities to Miss Weiler and her court.

Miss Edstrom and majorettes Marilyn Barthelmas, Flo and Jo Goldschmidt and ally Montgomery directed fans into a homecoming mood with a dance routine stepped off to the tune of "I Hear You Knocking".

The band then formed a passageway for the queen and her court who moved across the field in rhythm with "Sweetheart of Sigma Chi".

Activities ended with the singing and playing of Circleville's Alma Mater, "The Red and Black".

'Humiliation' Of Zhukov Seen Readied

Red Chinese Marshal Quoted by Pravda as Kremlin Sets Sights

LONDON (AP)—Soviet leaders today enlisted the support of a Red Chinese marshal in what looked like a Kremlin move preparing the Russian people for the humiliation of war hero Marshal Georgi Zhukov.

Pravda, the Soviet Communist newspaper, gave a significant display to an article by Chinese Marshal Liu Po-cheng stressing the importance of party leadership over Communist armed forces, reports from Moscow said.

The article followed the general lines of a campaign in the Soviet press since Zhukov was summarily relieved one week ago of his post as Soviet defense minister.

Moscow was still silent on the reasons for Zhukov's ouster but speculation was rife in Moscow that he resisted the work of party agents in the army.

Reports reaching the West indicated Kremlin leaders were consolidating their position before speaking out. A purge of military friends of the ousted soldier is underway, reports said.

REPORTS OF plans to bury Zhukov in an insignificant assignment came from Belgrade. But the Belgrade reports added that Zhukov is believed fighting behind the scenes to avoid banishment.

Private telephone conversations from Belgrade to foreigners in Moscow reportedly confirmed that Zhukov had been expelled from the Presidium and the Central Committee of the Communist Party. Yugoslavs expected an announcement of this from Moscow tonight.

Second Asian Flu Shot Is Being Urged

WASHINGTON (AP) — Many persons who have been vaccinated against Asian flu should get a second shot, the Public Health Service says.

The recommendation came in a statement Friday which said all manufacturers will have a new more powerful vaccine in production by Dec. 1.

Surgeon General Leroy S. Burney said earlier that some of the new vaccine should be ready for release by the end of this month.

The PHS recommended a second dose not less than two weeks after the first for two groups:

(1) Those who received only one-tenth of a cubic centimeter between the layers of the skin, and

(2) special risk groups such as pregnant women, the aged, and those suffering certain chronic ailments who receive one C.C. under the skin.

Meanwhile, the surgeon general reported that an estimated 8½ million Americans went to bed for a day or more with colds, influenza or similar diseases during the week ended Oct. 5. Burney said the total compared with about 380,000 new cases per week in mid-July.

Eisenhower Said 'Agonizingly Slow' To Sense Red Move

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Former President Truman charged Friday night that President Eisenhower was "agonizingly slow" to sense the new danger posed by the successful launching of a Russian satellite.

"And when made aware of it," Truman said, "he was slow to do what he ought to do."

In a speech peppered with scorn for the Eisenhower administration, particularly with reference to national defense and foreign affairs, the ex-President told a Jefferson-Jackson day banquet audience:

"While the Russians were demonstrating their scientific advances, the administration was actually issuing secret orders cutting down on basic research in the defense establishment."

Halloween Heroism Brings Medal to Toledo Girl, 12

TOLEDO (AP) — For heroism on Halloween last year, 12-year-old Patricia Schieb has won a Carnegie Award. She is the youngest of the 30 who were granted the coveted medals this year.

It happened when she and seven other children were walking near her home. An automobile swept down the wrong side of the highway. She yelled at the children and pushed 8-year-old Daniel Stone into the ditch.

The citation which came with her bronze medal continues: "Immediately thereafter the automobile, travelling at undiminished speed, struck Patricia. She was thrown 15 feet and struck the ground six feet from the side of the road as the vehicle left the scene. Daniel escaped injury."

The girl suffered a double fracture of a thigh, but has recovered.

Arledge Romps

Rock Hill's White threw a wild pitchout which bounced all the Circleville took over on downs.

The Tigers launched a drive of their own which carried to the Rock Hill 15. This attack was highlighted by a 27-yard end run by Arledge to the visitors' 37. Hosler picked up 12 more but the thrust ran out of steam at this point due to a penalty.

Rock Hill struck quickly in the third quarter, taking the kickoff and moving 72 yards for a fast score. Quarterback White faked a handoff on the CHS 32, cut around his own right end and raced to paydirt. Halfback John Loper fumbled on a run for extra point but the visitors rejoiced with a 12-7 lead.

The Lawrence County gridders appeared to be on the way for an insurance TD as the final quarter got underway. However, the Tiger forward wall stiffened and held for downs on its own three.

This was all the incentive Arledge needed as he brought fans to their feet two plays later with his long victory dash. Elsea again booted the ball through the uprights to make it Circleville 14, Rock Hill 12.

With the fire apparently taken out of them, the Rock Hill gridders were unable to move, punting to Circleville's 42 yard line.

* * *

WITH about three minutes remaining the Tigers ran out the clock on a combination of passes and running plays.

For the Tigers it was the end of a rocky road in search of victory. Until last night the CHS forces had lost five in a row and scored only two touchdowns.

Smiles and happiness reigned in the Tiger dressing room after the game. Coach Tom Bennett and his assistants remarked that the win was a team effort, giving all the players credit.

Coach Bennett singled out the running and defensive work of Arledge and praised the first varsity performances of sophomores Gary Vandenmark and Don Leonhardt.

He also gave credit to Hosler who played most of the game in a groggy frame of mind due to a bump on the head received early in the battle.

Linemen Asa Elsea, Bob Barnhart, Terry Barthelmas, Bill Johnson, Jon Parcher, Fred Sines and the rest of the Tiger forward wall were praised by the coaches, especially for their work in holding Rock Hill on the three-yard line prior to the long run by Arledge.

Uneasy Peace Prevails in Texas Dispute

DAINGERFIELD, Tex. (AP)—An uneasy peace prevailed today in the Lone Star Steel Co labor dispute after strikers accepted a truce which means many will be returning to work.

Pickets were removed from around the sprawling steel plant last night. This followed a three-hour meeting of about 2,000 strikers, all but 50 of whom voted to go back to work.

Jittery residents, aroused by bombings, shotgun blasts and threats during the seven - week wildcat strike, were hopeful the truce would end tension that has gripped a 10-county area around the huge steel plant.

Chris Dixie of Houston, regional attorney for the United Steelworkers of America said the idled workers agreed to abide by union recommendations that they return to work, made after a conference with company lawyers.

"The action amounted to a truce and not a settlement," Dixie said. "None of the aggravations have been settled but are left for the future. The international union intends to process an arbitration case."

He said this case would cover the main points in the dispute.

When the workers struck Sept. 21, they said it was because the company was disregarding the seniority system outlined in their three-year contract, which runs until September, 1959.

Second Asian Flu Shot Is Being Urged

WASHINGTON (AP) — Many persons who have been vaccinated against Asian flu should get a second shot, the Public Health Service says.

The recommendation came in a statement Friday which said all manufacturers will have a new more powerful vaccine in production by Dec. 1.

Surgeon General Leroy S. Burney said earlier that some of the new vaccine should be ready for release by the end of this month.

The PHS recommended a second dose not less than two weeks after the first for two groups:

(1) Those who received only one-tenth of a cubic centimeter between the layers of the skin, and

(2) special risk groups such as pregnant women, the aged, and those suffering certain chronic ailments who receive one C.C. under the skin.

Meanwhile, the surgeon general reported that an estimated 8½ million Americans went to bed for a day or more with colds, influenza or similar diseases during the week ended Oct. 5. Burney said the total compared with about 380,000 new cases per week in mid-July.

Eisenhower Said 'Agonizingly Slow' To Sense Red Move

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Former President Truman charged Friday night that President Eisenhower was "agonizingly slow" to sense the new danger posed by the successful launching of a Russian satellite.

"And when made aware of it," Truman said, "he was slow to do what he ought to do."

In a speech peppered with scorn for the Eisenhower administration, particularly with reference to national defense and foreign affairs, the ex-President told a Jefferson-Jackson day banquet audience:

"While the Russians were demonstrating their scientific advances, the administration was actually issuing secret orders cutting down on basic research in the defense establishment."

Halloween Heroism Brings Medal to Toledo Girl, 12

TOLEDO (AP) — For heroism on Halloween last year, 12-year-old Patricia Schieb has won a Carnegie Award. She is the youngest of the 30 who were granted the coveted medals this year.

It happened when she and seven other children were walking near her home. An automobile swept down the wrong side of the highway. She yelled at the children and pushed 8-year-old Daniel Stone into the ditch.

The citation which came with her bronze medal continues: "Immediately thereafter the automobile, travelling at undiminished speed, struck Patricia. She was thrown 15 feet and struck the ground six feet from the side of the road as the vehicle left the scene. Daniel escaped injury."

The girl suffered a double fracture of a thigh, but has recovered.

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Consolidation of municipal hospitals for whites and Negroes by next May 1 was ordered Friday night by the city council.

The merger is expected to save the city about $368,000 a year.

Arledge Romps

Rock Hill's White threw a wild pitchout which bounced all the Circleville took over on downs.

The Tigers launched a drive of their own which carried to the Rock Hill 15. This attack was highlighted by a 27-yard end run by Arledge to the visitors' 37. Hosler picked up 12 more but the thrust ran out of steam at this point due to a penalty.

Rock Hill struck quickly in the third quarter, taking the kickoff and moving 72 yards for a fast score. Quarterback White faked a handoff on the CHS 32, cut around his own right end and raced to paydirt. Halfback John Loper fumbled on a run for extra point but the visitors rejoiced with a 12-7 lead.

The Lawrence County gridders appeared to be on the way for an insurance TD as the final quarter got underway. However, the Tiger forward wall stiffened and held for downs on its own three.

This was all the incentive Arledge needed as he brought fans to their feet two plays later with his long victory dash. Elsea again booted the ball through the uprights to make it Circleville 14, Rock Hill 12.

With the fire apparently taken out of them, the Rock Hill gridders were unable to move, punting to Circleville's 42 yard line.

* * *

WITH about three minutes remaining the Tigers ran out the clock on a combination of passes and running plays.

For the Tigers it was the end of a rocky road in search of victory. Until last night the CHS forces had lost five in a row and scored only two touchdowns.

Smiles and happiness reigned in the Tiger dressing room after the game. Coach Tom Bennett and his assistants remarked that the win was a team effort, giving all the players credit.

Coach Bennett singled out the running and defensive work of Arledge and praised the first varsity performances of sophomores Gary Vandenmark and Don Leonhardt.

He also gave credit to Hosler who played most of the game in a groggy frame of mind due to a bump on the head received early in the battle.

Linemen Asa Elsea, Bob Barnhart, Terry Barthelmas, Bill Johnson, Jon Parcher, Fred Sines and the rest of the Tiger forward wall were praised by the coaches, especially for their work in holding Rock Hill on the three-yard line prior to the long run by Arledge.

THE Tigers next encounter is Tuesday night when they entertain South Central Ohio League leader Greenfield. Kickoff is 8 p. m.

Here are the lineups:

Uneasy Peace Prevails in Texas Dispute

DAINGERFIELD, Tex. (AP)—An uneasy peace prevailed today in the Lone Star Steel Co labor dispute after strikers accepted a truce which means many will be returning to work.

Pickets were removed from around the sprawling steel plant last night. This followed a three-hour meeting of about 2,000 strikers, all but 50 of whom voted to go back to work.

Jittery residents, aroused by bombings, shotgun blasts and threats during the seven - week wildcat strike, were hopeful the truce would end tension that has gripped a 10-county area around the huge steel plant.

Chris Dixie of Houston, regional attorney for the United Steelworkers of America said the idled workers agreed to abide by union recommendations that they return to work, made after a conference with company lawyers.

"The action amounted to a truce and not a settlement," Dixie said. "None of the aggravations have been settled but are left for the future. The international union intends to process an arbitration case."

He said this case would cover the main points in the dispute.

When the workers struck Sept. 21, they said it was because the company was disregarding the seniority system outlined in their three-year contract, which runs until September, 1959.

Servite Order Founded in 1233

The Servite Fathers are a Religious Order founded in 1233 by Our Blessed Mother. In that year Our Lady called seven young men of Florence, Italy to dedicate themselves to Her Service. With full approval of Church authorities a new Religious Order was formed and became known as the Order of Servants of Mary.

In America this Order is popularly known as The Servite Fathers. The seven men who established the Order were declared saints by Leo XIII. They are known as the Seven Holy Founders and their feast occurs on February 12.

The National Sanctuary of Our Sorrowful Mother in Portland, Oregon is a world-renowned center of devotion under supervision of the Servite Fathers. Missionaries from this Sanctuary are regularly engaged in conducting Parish Missions, Novenas, Forty Hours, and Retreats. Thousands of visitors from all over the world have deeply admired this outdoor shrine overlooking the Columbia River Highway, Portland, Oregon.

Parish Missions represent a continuation of the pioneer work done by our Foreign and Home Missionaries. The financial offerings given by priests and people to Servite Missionaries working in their parishes and schools are a tremendous help to the upkeep of Servite Missions everywhere.

These offerings go far in maintaining approximately one hundred men laboring in the Missions in South America, South Africa, Mexico and the Southwest, Negro Missions in Louisiana. Each day in all Servite communities there are special Masses and prayers offered for Benefactors.

Awesome Figures In Store

That old cliche, "astronomical figures," undoubtedly will be in for revision when, as and if homo sapiens implements his reach out into the infinite.

Through telescopes of ever higher power, science has been increasing its figures as to distances and time in relation to the orbs that twinkle by night.

For example, a team of physicists from several nations has been studying meteorites that fell in Norton County, Kans., and Furnas County, Neb. They have concluded learnedly that these meteorites traveled in space for 240 to 280 million years before falling to earth.

The same savants conclude that the bodies were originally a part of a planet that had existed 4.2 billion years before it collided with another heavenly body and was blown to bits.

They base their conclusions on studies of radioactive decay of one element into another. That process of decay has come to be known as the "cosmic clock" measuring time in space.

That is awe-inspiring, but man has the current problem of seeing to it that his base of operations, Earth, is not blown up in collision with passions generated by the human species.

Stock Market Issues

Since July 12 stocks listed on the big board in Wall Street have lost nearly $50 billion in quoted values. This does not bear any resemblance to a big bust. But it does reflect the worried thinking of investors who must evaluate future events if they are not to lose their shirts.

The over-inventories position of some industries and the new turn in international affairs — not yet fully appraised — reflect the uncertainties which show up in the reading of a delicate barometer.

British and Swiss shareholders have been selling American stocks. Whether they are attempting to get out of a bear market temporarily or are fearful of the ultimate safety of their U. S. investments is not clear. It would be interesting to know whether they think there is a safer place in the world for their funds than the United States.

In all probability foreign investors will be back when Sputnik uneasiness fades out and they recognize that there is no substitute for America as the financial center of the free world.

Oprea Opening Recalls Russia

By George Sokolsky

A fellow asked me why I am not swell; why I don't go to the opera on Monday nights when the swells go; why do I go on Saturday afternoon when nobody goes but old women and little girls. So, I told him that I go to the Opera House to hear music and not to see weary men and listless women calculating the cost of dresses, diamonds and such trivia and making a financial statement out of what they see on a woman's back.

As a matter of fact, were I on hand on such an occasion, I would wonder how many of the baubles are borrowed because it is quite fashionable for jewellers to lend a gaud to a dame with the hope that she might eventually induce her husband to buy it. After all, they're insured and a loss is as good as a sale, maybe better.

Lots of decent, musical people want to buy tickets for the opening night, although if they had any sense they would avert it. Too many of the seats are bought by those who care nothing about music, who believe that Eugene Onegin is a Greek from Cyprus, and "Aida" was written by somebody called Verdi who must be a friend of Frank Costello or why would he have a name like that?

Well, let us not be snobbish about their ignorance. These people do know how to make money, which is a virtue of some kind, and it is all done so that the figures can be presented to the Internal Revenue Service without fear or trepidation. Also some of them have theirs in tax havens and profit havens and such places and are doing very well, thank you.

And one must respect ability where it is found but why go to the opera, to sit through the period of observation prior to the first act, maybe squirm through the first intermission and then go to a night club to listen to a sultry voice sing a jingle with lyrics that are doggerel, the acme of which is that June rhymes with moon? But what rhymes with "Sputnik"?

It is funny how history repeats tiself. Back in the days of the Russian Revolution, I used to see such bourgeois in Petrograd in the cafes chantant, listening to singers recite how Lenin and Trotzky will drop dead and the world will be restored to normalcy. So, most of the singers were shot and Lenin became a Czar and the bourgeoisie ran away, if they could.

Fashion sometimes becomes iridulous as when American females have taken to tiaras because Queen Elizabeth has been a-visiting. Many faces and the tiara do not go together, but even their best friends won't tell them. The good, old republican face resents the tiara; it regards the tiara as the mark of royalty against which our forefathers fought and bled, or were they our forefathers? The question is, shall we all buy our wives tiaras and will they come in rhinestones or in synthetics and can they be bought on the installment plan?

This year, the opera opened with Tchaikovsky's "Eugene Onegin." Tchaikovsky is not too difficult to listen to. My children insist that they are musically more mature because they have passed through Tchaikovsky and now prefer Bach. Who knows they may one day listen to Bartok with pleasure. To prove a point, a record was played to show me that Honegger can compose like Bach. So now I am educated.

I listened last to "Eugene Onegin" in 1917 in Petrograd when the Revolution was still revolutionary and not given over to the science of destruction. "Eugene Onegin" will ever be in my memory because of this association which even then meant for me the end of the world because it was the end of freedom. We were a sad audience because we all knew what would happen to us and to all the world. We were conscious of doom and the music is so beautiful.

Perhaps we were too pessimistic in those days in Petrograd 40 years ago. But we were not cheap, for we did not have the money to be cheap. It is costly to be overdressed and overjewelled and overanxious to be noticed and hungry for a line of type even if it is derogatory type.

Help Doctor Locate Sinus

By Herman N. Bundesen, M.D.

Sinus trouble can be very painful, as anyone who has had it well knows. Yet the very fact that it is painful, often helps a doctor determine just where the basic trouble lies.

Your sensitivity to pain helps greatly in diagnosing the specific area infected.

Now I don't want you diagnosing your own troubles and illnesses, but you can borrow a trick from the doctor and get an indication in what area your sinuses are acting up so that you can tell him about it.

Press your thumbs against both of your cheeks. Use equal force.

If, say, the right cheek registers a dull pain, it might mean there's an infection of the right antrum or cavity. Pain in the left cheek could mean trouble in the left antrum.

Using the same method, apply pressure to your forehead over eyes and then under the overhang of your eyebrows near your nose. If you notice a tenderness at any of these points, it could mean the frontal sinuses are infected.

This method, of course, isn't sure-fire. It merely narrows the search for the doctor.

He might be able to confirm his diagnosis by using the transillumination method.

In this procedure, he literally "lights up your head" by using a flashlight.

To detect any difference in opacity, he puts a small flashlight into your mouth. If your frontal sinuses are normal, they'll light up with a pinkish glow.

The light makes the pupils of your eyes glow if the maxillary or antra sinuses are empty and transparent. If one sinus isn't transparent, it's likely to be infected and filled with pus.

Of course this method is no help in detecting trouble in the ethmoid cells and sphenoid sinuses. To find any trouble which might be lurking there—and sometimes in the frontal sinuses too — your doctor probably will use X-rays.

But finding the infection is only part of the job. Treating it—that's the real chore!

Question and Answer

T. B.: My newborn baby has a flat red birthmark. Will it disappear?

Answer: As a rule, flat red marks disappear as the child grows older. If not, later on they may be skilfully treated with X-ray and radium or carbon dioxide snow.

Hog Price Cut Runs 12½ Pct.

But 'Ag Agency Says Production Holds Up

WASHINGTON (AP) — Producer prices of hogs declined about 12½ per cent between mid-July and mid-October, but this drop took little out of the incentive to raise more of the porkers.

Prices of corn, the major factor in determining costs of raising hogs, declined just as much. As a consequence, a farmer can make about as much out of corn fed to hogs at the mid-October prices as he could from corn fed to hogs at the mid-July prices.

An Agriculture Department farm price report shows that hogs brought producers an average of $19.30 a hundred pounds in mid-July and $16.90 in mid-October.

Corn, on the other hand, sold for an average of $1.23 a bushel in mid-July and $1.06 in mid-October.

Expressed in farmer parlance, the hog-corn ratio was 15.7 to 1 in mid-July and 15.9 to 1 in mid-October. This means that 100 pounds of live hog would buy 15.7 bushels of corn in mid-July and 15.9 in mid-October.

Records show that when the ratio is wider than 12-1, farmers tend to increase hog production, but when it falls below that ratio they tend to reduce production.

It would appear that despite the recent decline in hog prices, there is a strong possibility that farmers will continue to expand production of hogs.

Secretary of Agriculture Benson has urged producers to go slow in stepping up production lest they overproduce and bring prices crashing down to unfavorable levels, as happened two years ago.

The hog-corn ratio is considerably more favorable than it was a year ago. At that time 100 pounds of hog would buy only 13 bushels of corn. Two years ago the ratio dropped to around 10-1. A sharp decline in hog production followed.

10-Year Call Set On New Ohio Bonds

COLUMBUS (AP) — Ohio Sinking Fund Commission has decided to make its first issue of 20-year capital improvement bonds callable in 10 years to save interest charges.

The commission took that action at the recommendation of Gov. C. William O'Neill. The governor said $25 million worth of notes issued last year and an anticipated issue of another $5 million worth yet this year could be paid off by the end of 1958 from cigarette tax revenues.

He explained that the issuance of notes would result in a considerable saving in interest payments required for bonds.

10-Year Call Set On New Ohio Bonds

COLUMBUS (AP) — Ohio Sinking Fund Commission has decided to make its first issue of 20-year capital improvement bonds callable in 10 years to save interest charges.

The commission took that action at the recommendation of Gov. C. William O'Neill. The governor said $25 million worth of notes issued last year and an anticipated issue of another $5 million worth yet this year could be paid off by the end of 1958 from cigarette tax revenues.

He explained that the issuance of notes would result in a considerable saving in interest payments required for bonds.

Women's International Exposition to Start

Rug-O-Rama Is Feature of Show

By JOAN O'SULLIVAN
(King Features Syndicate)

"Do you like it? Made it myself!"

That's what a goodly number of proud ladies will be saying about rugs when the 34th Annual Women's International Exposition opens at the 71st Regiment Armory in New York City on November 4th under the sponsorship of the Women's National Institute, Inc.

A special feature of this year's show, which is an annual favorite with women, will be a Rug-o-Rama, a spectacular display of the popular vogue for rug-making.

All the 450 handsome rug creations on display will be the proud work of members of the International Federatoin of Hand Arts, Division of the W.I.E., who have mastered the arts of hooking and braiding.

The Rug-o-Rama will be the largest rug collection ever displayed under one roof. How-to demonstrations and lectures will be part of the program.

Among the displays will be a handsome "One World" rug hooked by 75-year-old Mrs. Ingrid McBrian of Shelter Island, Long Island. It shows two hemispheres circled in the center and it's bordered with views of world-famous places, including America's United Nations, France's Eiffel Tower, Japan's Mount Fuji, Canada's Lake Louise and other landmarks.

Mrs. Leaverne Brescia of Flushing, N. Y., who is in charge of the Rug-o-Rama, and Mrs. Irene W. Jamieson of Cold Springs Harbor, Long Island, a teacher and lecturer on the subject have a hopeful word for would-be rug-makers.

"Anyone," say the ladies, "can make a rug. It's an art, but it can be mastered by any woman who can braid and sew and wield a crochet hook."

Materials to make the rugs are bought by the pound from wool mills or remnant stores. The lighter the original colors, the more expensive they are. An average price is about 50 cents a pound.

It takes time and skill, but if you want an inexpensvie floor covering—and one you can point to with a do-it-yourselfer's pride—have a look at the exhibits in the Rug-o-Rama, and ask enough questions so you'll know how to go about it.

The Rug-o-Rama is, of course, just one phase of this annual exposition. It's for women, so you can be sure there are numerous other displays to interest them. Fine arts, home skills, hand crafts, culinary specialties and horticulture are only a few of the fields that will be represented and explained in the 250 exhibits.

It's a wonderful show and you have until November 10th to visit it.

BRAIDED RUG — Mrs. Irene W. Jamieson, Cold Spring Harbor, L.I. demonstrated rug braiding. Braided rugs will be on display along with hooked and crocheted rugs.

Author at Caldwell Table At Ohioana Luncheon

Last Saturday, Mrs. H. O. Caldwell served as a hostess at the annual luncheon of the "Ohioana" Library Association at the Neil House. This luncheon honored the 1957 Ohio authors and composers and was attended by 400.

Mrs. Caldwell was delighted to have as guests at her table, R. L. Zalk and his wife. Zalk is the author of the syndicated article "How to be a Successful Widow" which appears in the Sunday section of a Columbus newspaper, and which has just been released in book form.

On Friday Mrs. Caldwell gave her illustrated talk "Flying down to Rio and Other Romantic Cities in South America," at the meeting of the Central Ohio Rose Society in the Whetstone Recreation Hall, Park of Roses.

Household Hints

Leftover syrup (from canned fruit) is delicious served over sliced fresh pears. Add a little grated lemon rind to perk up flavor.

Get in the habit of doing your food shopping early in the morning! Perishables are at their best, as a rule, then.

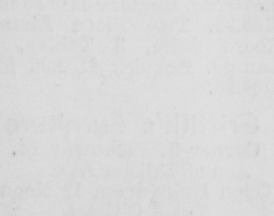

Joe Louis has made the most boxing appearances professionally in Yankee Stadium. He fought there 12 times.

Whipped heavy cream can be turned into small aluminum foil cups and put into the home freezer.

Stir some flaked coconut into that bread pudding and then sprinkle more coconut over the top before it goes into the oven.

If that boiled frosting begins to harden before you've frosted your whole cake, beat in a tiny bit of hot water.

Wife Preservers

Use fresh cold water to cover bones and meat when you make soup stock. The vegetables to be added may be seasoned with a little finely minced onion and melted butter.

Buffet Supper For Fall

By ALICE DENHOFF

As the fall season gets under way, buffet parties seem to be more popular than ever. They're easy on the hostess and help the guests to get acquainted more quickly.

As far as refreshments go, it's just as well to have a few new ideas on hand.

For instance, one way to get the buffet off to a good start is to serve trays of appetizers with glasses of fruit or tomato juice. Give your imagination free rein in arranging the trays.

We like to center a handsome platter with a "cocktail ball" for which we choose a symmetrical grapefruit or jumbo-size apple. Spike it with bite-size hors d'oeuvres on tooth picks.

If you use fruit as a centerpiece, cut a slice from the bottom so that it will stand squarely on its ground. Apples should be polished until they shine.

Surround the "ball" with varishaped canapes in interesting arrangements. For a finishing touch, add a few stalks of stuffed celery, parsley sprigs or water cress.

Dried beef pin wheels make good stick-on-a-pick appetizers.

Arrange small, overlapping slices of dried beef (or single large pieces) to form a 6-in. square. Spread thinly with cream cheese which has been mixed with chopped almonds or pecans and seasoned to taste with horseradish and paprika. No salt is necessary.

Roll up slightly, wrap in waxed paper and chill until firm.

With a sharp knife cut roll into ½-inch slices and stock on toothpicks.

For another one, place a small pickled onion, a cube of salami, ham or bologna or liver sausage and a cube of Swiss or American cheese on a toothpick. Omit onion if desired.

To make Chunkies, spread ½-in. cube of ham, bologna or pork luncheon loaf with a little cream cheese seasoned with a little prepared yellow mustard and roll in finely minced parsley.

For a tangy canape, cut off ends and hollow centers of large dill pickles. Pack solidly with a mixture of 1 can deviled ham, tbsp. minced celery and tsp. mayonnaise. Place in refrigerator for several hours.

Cut into thin slices and serve on buttered crackers.

Meat spread suggestions for canapes might include deviled ham mixed with finely chopped hard-cooked egg and a little horseradish. Also frankfurters, skinned, put through medium blade of food chopper and mixed with finely chopped sour pickles, prepared mustard and a little mayonnaise.

Among illustrious alumni of Ohio's Wittenberg College are Isaac K. Funk and Adam W. Wagnalls, co-founders of Funk and Wagnalls which is famous for its "Standard Dictionary".

Beauty

Keep That Wave In Your Hair

By JEANNE D'ARCY
(King Features Syndicate)

If you can't do a thing with your hair, blame yourself. New sprays on the market take over the job for you, keep locks neatly in place, so look into them if you haven't yet done so.

Latest spray to come along is one that's a gem. We suggest using it right after you set your hair while it's still curly, before it's combed out. Do this and you won't have to wrestle with waves for several days. It preserves them, as it were.

Even if you use the spray after a setting, the rule is spray first, comb second.

Speaking of hair care, you might wish to look into a home permanent that requires no resetting. It's a three-step job.

First, you apply a creamy waving lotion that comes in a tube that has an applicator tip so it can be used directly on each strand before waving. Nothing to pour. No bowls, no cotton, no anything else needed.

Second, you put up curls and wait 15 minutes while they process, then rinse with water.

Third, when hair has dried, you unwind curlers, brush out the coiffure and you're finished!

That's all there is to it.

Vote for the one mill operating levy because:

1. It will not increase your taxes. It merely replaces the one mill fire levy which expires this year and which has been financing the operation of our fire department.
2. It should eliminate the necessity for a city income tax or other forms of drastic taxation.
3. It will save you money. If it passes the city will not be forced to issue bonds for necessary operations. Bonds cost you around 50 percent more in the end.
4. If it does not pass the city will have to curtail services and forget about much needed improvements such as street and alley resurfacing and many other improvements.

Circleville is now in a sound financial condition. Let's keep it that way.

Author at Caldwell Table At Ohioana Luncheon

Last Saturday, Mrs. H. O. Caldwell served as a hostess at the annual luncheon of the "Ohioana" Library Association at the Neil House. This luncheon honored the 1957 Ohio authors and composers and was attended by 400.

Mrs. Caldwell was delighted to have as guests at her table, R. L. Zalk and his wife. Zalk is the author of the syndicated article "How to be a Successful Widow" which appears in the Sunday section of a Columbus newspaper, and which has just been released in book form.

On Friday Mrs. Caldwell gave her illustrated talk "Flying down to Rio and Other Romantic Cities in South America," at the meeting of the Central Ohio Rose Society in the Whetstone Recreation Hall, Park of Roses.

Household Hints

Leftover syrup (from canned fruit) is delicious served over sliced fresh pears. Add a little grated lemon rind to perk up flavor.

Get in the habit of doing your food shopping early in the morning! Perishables are at their best, as a rule, then.

Joe Louis has made the most boxing appearances professionally in Yankee Stadium. He fought there 12 times.

Whipped heavy cream can be turned into small aluminum foil cups and put into the home freezer.

Stir some flaked coconut into that bread pudding and then sprinkle more coconut over the top before it goes into the oven.

If that boiled frosting begins to harden before you've frosted your whole cake, beat in a tiny bit of hot water.

Wife Preservers

Use fresh cold water to cover bones and meat when you make soup stock. The vegetables to be added may be seasoned with a little finely minced onion and melted butter.

Buffet Supper For Fall

By ALICE DENHOFF

As the fall season gets under way, buffet parties seem to be more popular than ever. They're easy on the hostess and help the guests to get acquainted more quickly.

As far as refreshments go, it's just as well to have a few new ideas on hand.

For instance, one way to get the buffet off to a good start is to serve trays of appetizers with glasses of fruit or tomato juice. Give your imagination free rein in arranging the trays.

We like to center a handsome platter with a "cocktail ball" for which we choose a symmetrical grapefruit or jumbo-size apple. Spike it with bite-size hors d'oeuvres on tooth picks.

If you use fruit as a centerpiece, cut a slice from the bottom so that it will stand squarely on its ground. Apples should be polished until they shine.

Surround the "ball" with varishaped canapes in interesting arrangements. For a finishing touch, add a few stalks of stuffed celery, parsley sprigs or water cress.

Dried beef pin wheels make good stick-on-a-pick appetizers.

Arrange small, overlapping slices of dried beef (or single large pieces) to form a 6-in. square. Spread thinly with cream cheese which has been mixed with chopped almonds or pecans and seasoned to taste with horseradish and paprika. No salt is necessary.

Roll up slightly, wrap in waxed paper and chill until firm.

With a sharp knife cut roll into ½-inch slices and stock on toothpicks.

For another one, place a small pickled onion, a cube of salami, ham or bologna or liver sausage and a cube of Swiss or American cheese on a toothpick. Omit onion if desired.

To make Chunkies, spread ½-in. cube of ham, bologna or pork luncheon loaf with a little cream cheese seasoned with a little prepared yellow mustard and roll in finely minced parsley.

For a tangy canape, cut off ends and hollow centers of large dill pickles. Pack solidly with a mixture of 1 can deviled ham, tbsp. minced celery and tsp. mayonnaise. Place in refrigerator for several hours.

Cut into thin slices and serve on buttered crackers.

Meat spread suggestions for canapes might include deviled ham mixed with finely chopped hard-cooked egg and a little horseradish. Also frankfurters, skinned, put through medium blade of food chopper and mixed with finely chopped sour pickles, prepared mustard and a little mayonnaise.

Among illustrious alumni of Ohio's Wittenberg College are Isaac K. Funk and Adam W. Wagnalls, co-founders of Funk and Wagnalls which is famous for its "Standard Dictionary".

Personals

Mrs. Figgatt attended for the entire convention. Mrs. Fissell and Mrs. McFarland were present for the program Wednesday.

Beauty

Keep That Wave In Your Hair

By JEANNE D'ARCY
(King Features Syndicate)

If you can't do a thing with your hair, blame yourself. New sprays on the market take over the job for you, keep locks neatly in place, so look into them if you haven't yet done so.

Latest spray to come along is one that's a gem. We suggest using it right after you set your hair while it's still curly, before it's combed out. Do this and you won't have to wrestle with waves for several days. It preserves them, as it were.

Even if you use the spray after a setting, the rule is spray first, comb second.

Speaking of hair care, you might wish to look into a home permanent that requires no resetting. It's a three-step job.

First, you apply a creamy waving lotion that comes in a tube that has an applicator tip so it can be used directly on each strand before waving. Nothing to pour. No bowls, no cotton, no anything else needed.

Second, you put up curls and wait 15 minutes while they process, then rinse with water.

Third, when hair has dried, you unwind curlers, brush out the coiffure and you're finished!

That's all there is to it.

Vote for the one mill operating levy because:

1. It will not increase your taxes. It merely replaces the one mill fire levy which expires this year and which has been financing the operation of our fire department.
2. It should eliminate the necessity for a city income tax or other forms of drastic taxation.
3. It will save you money. If it passes the city will not be forced to issue bonds for necessary operations. Bonds cost you around 50 percent more in the end.
4. If it does not pass the city will have to curtail services and forget about much needed improvements such as street and alley resurfacing and many other improvements.

Circleville is now in a sound financial condition. Let's keep it that way.

Vote for the one mill operating levy.

Mikan Still Seeks Win with Lakers

NEW YORK (AP)—Big George Mikan is finding out that there's a big difference between coaching and playing.

He was the toast of Minneapolis when he was pouring in points for the Lakers from a pivot post.

As coach of the NBA club now, he can't find a winning combination. Friday night, the Lakers lost their third game of the season without a triumph.

They were defeated by the Syracuse Nationals, 113-100.

In the other NBA game Friday night, the Cincinnati Royals survived a shaky first half and went on to whip the St. Louis Hawks, 99-92.

Atlanta Drops Lid-Lifter To Clarksburg

ATLANTA— Clarksburg's Eagles ruined the Atlanta lid-lifter here last night, 60-50, despite a 20-point last-period rally by the Red Raiders.

Clarksburg took a commanding 17-5 lead in the first period as Atlanta's shooting eye failed. It was 34-18 at the half and the Eagles were never in trouble.

Atlanta staged a comeback in final period outpointing Clarksburg 20-12, but it was much too late.

Gearheart of Atlanta kept his mates in the game with a bulldozer driving shot. Martin was the Red Raiders' defensive standout. Gearheart was top scorer for Atlanta with 18 points and Ater matched that for Clarksburg.

Both squads used the zone defense throughout the game, moving into a full-court press occasionally.

Kingston Nips Warrior Unit

Saltcreek Opener Is Spoiled, 55-49

By J. I. SMITH

Herald Staff Writer

Kingston held off a spirited Saltcreek attack last night to whip the Warriors, 55-49, in the opening game for both squads.

A five-point splurge in the last two minutes wrapped up the win for the Redskins. With two minutes left in the tilt, Saltcreek trailed 49-51. Kingston took charge scoring five points to none for Saltcreek in that vital game-end period, despite the loss of two regulars by the foul route.

It was a see-saw battle in the first quarter with Saltcreek on top as the period ended, 14-12. The teams were never more than two points apart at any time.

In the second stanza Kingston pulled away 28-22, as Saltcreek began missing rebounds under its own bankboard.

For the remaining two quarters, Saltcreek fought Kingston evenly, dropping but two points each period.

As expected in any opening game mistakes were made by both teams, but as the season progresses each team will improve. The Redskins were able to move the ball into the bucket handily. They forced Saltcreek to shoot from the outside, thereby reducing the Warrior field goal percentage.

* * *

KINGSTON'S scoring was evenly divided among its starters with Bob Williams, Arnold Bee and Emory Carper, scoring 13, 12, and 11 points respectively. Fred Murray with 19 and Bill Valentine with 13 led the Warrior attack. Murray was especially impressive with his long one-hand set shot.

Kingston registered a 37 per cent shooting average as against Saltcreek's 33 per cent.

The game was witnessed by an estimated crowd of 500.

Plenty of Birds Awaiting Hunters

COLUMBUS (AP)—The opening of the pheasant hunting season Nov. 15 will see the highest pheasant population since 1951, the Ohio Division of Wildlife says.

The best hunting should be in the northwestern area of the state, particularly in the old Lake Erie lake bed region, the division said. Good hunting is also likely in a number of fringe counties in central and western Ohio.

The division reported rabbit hunting this year should be as good or slightly better than last.

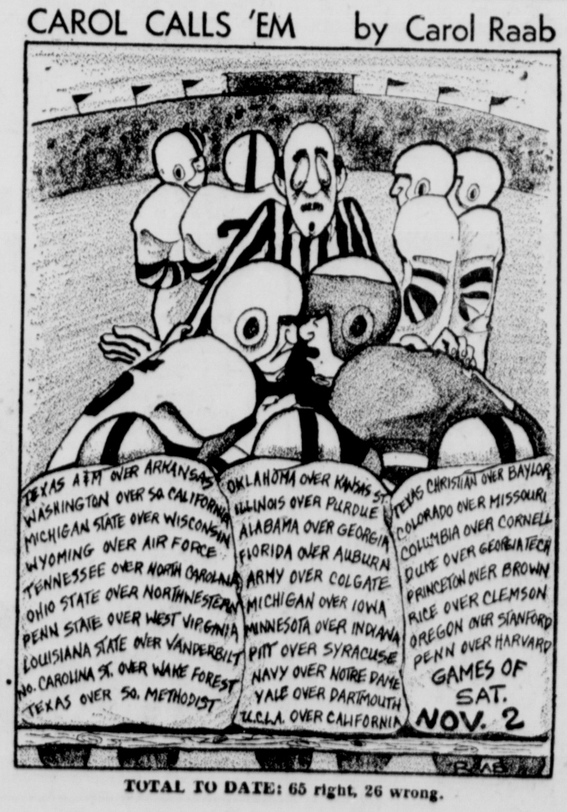

Mahoning Countian Is Queen at OSU

COLUMBUS (AP)—Judy Cash from Mahoning County reigns today as queen of the Homecoming football game between Ohio State and Northwestern.

Miss Cash, a junior in the College of Education, was selected Friday night from among five finalists chosen in campus-wide voting Wednesday.

A pert junior majoring in elementary education, she will be presented to Ohio Stadium spectators during halftime ceremonies of today's game.

Mikan Still Seeks Win with Lakers

NEW YORK (AP)—Big George Mikan is finding out that there's a big difference between coaching and playing.

He was the toast of Minneapolis when he was pouring in points for the Lakers from a pivot post.

As coach of the NBA club now, he can't find a winning combination. Friday night, the Lakers lost their third game of the season without a triumph.

They were defeated by the Syracuse Nationals, 113-100.

In the other NBA game Friday night, the Cincinnati Royals survived a shaky first half and went on to whip the St. Louis Hawks, 99-92.

Atlanta Drops Lid-Lifter To Clarksburg

ATLANTA— Clarksburg's Eagles ruined the Atlanta lid-lifter here last night, 60-50, despite a 20-point last-period rally by the Red Raiders.

Clarksburg took a commanding 17-5 lead in the first period as Atlanta's shooting eye failed. It was 34-18 at the half and the Eagles were never in trouble.

Atlanta staged a comeback in final period outpointing Clarksburg 20-12, but it was much too late.

Gearheart of Atlanta kept his mates in the game with a bulldozer driving shot. Martin was the Red Raiders' defensive standout. Gearheart was top scorer for Atlanta with 18 points and Ater matched that for Clarksburg.

Both squads used the zone defense throughout the game, moving into a full-court press occasionally.

Plenty of Birds Awaiting Hunters

COLUMBUS (AP)—The opening of the pheasant hunting season Nov. 15 will see the highest pheasant population since 1951, the Ohio Division of Wildlife says.

The best hunting should be in the northwestern area of the state, particularly in the old Lake Erie lake bed region, the division said. Good hunting is also likely in a number of fringe counties in central and western Ohio.

The division reported rabbit hunting this year should be as good or slightly better than last.

Mahoning Countian Is Queen at OSU

COLUMBUS (AP)—Judy Cash from Mahoning County reigns today as queen of the Homecoming football game between Ohio State and Northwestern.

Miss Cash, a junior in the College of Education, was selected Friday night from among five finalists chosen in campus-wide voting Wednesday.

A pert junior majoring in elementary education, she will be presented to Ohio Stadium spectators during halftime ceremonies of today's game.

Kingston Nips Warrior Unit

Saltcreek Opener Is Spoiled, 55-49

By J. I. SMITH
Herald Staff Writer

Kingston held off a spirited Saltcreek attack last night to whip the Warriors, 55-49, in the opening game for both squads.

A five-point splurge in the last two minutes wrapped up the win for the Redskins. With two minutes left in the tilt, Saltcreek trailed 49-51. Kingston took charge scoring five points to none for Saltcreek in that vital game-end period, despite the loss of two regulars by the foul route.

It was a see-saw battle in the first quarter with Saltcreek on top as the period ended, 14-12. The teams were never more than two points apart at any time.

In the second stanza Kingston pulled away 28-22, as Saltcreek began missing rebounds under its own bankboard.

For the remaining two quarters, Saltcreek fought Kingston evenly, dropping but two points each period.

As expected in any opening game mistakes were made by both teams, but as the season progresses each team will improve. The Redskins were able to move the ball into the bucket handily. They forced Saltcreek to shoot from the outside, thereby reducing the Warrior field goal percentage.

KINGSTON'S scoring was evenly divided among its starters with Bob Williams, Arnold Bee and Emory Carper, scoring 13, 12, and 11 points respectively. Fred Murray with 19 and Bill Valentine with 13 led the Warrior attack. Murray was especially impressive with his long one-hand set shot.

Kingston registered a 37 per cent shooting average as against Saltcreek's 33 per cent.

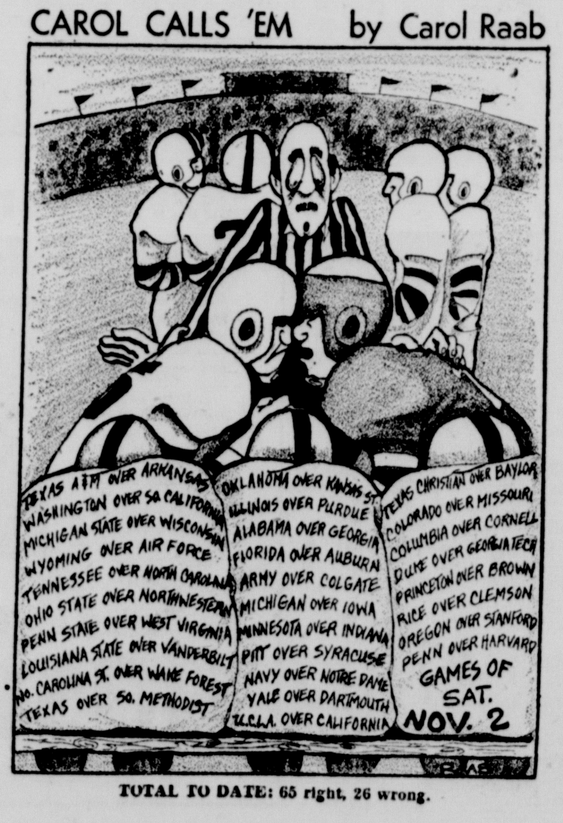

The game was witnessed by an estimated crowd of 500.

Detroit's Pro Gridders Set For Frisco Tilt

Lions To Do Battle On Heels of Reports Of Team 'Dissension'

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Detroit Lions get into action for the first time since "dissension" charges came into the open when they invade San Francisco Sunday.

The Lions, a disappointment in the National Football League race so far, are said to be annoyed at Leon Hart for his performances to date. Officials of the team have denied that there is any unrest.

The 49ers lost their opener, then came on to win their next four. Last Sunday, they barely nosed the Chicago Bears 21-17.

The Lions currently are tied for second place in the western section with the Baltimore Orioles, each with a 3-2 mark.

A victory for the Lions over the 49ers, therefore, would pull them into a first-place tie.

The Colts will have something to say about the western division lead, too. If they polish off the Pittsburgh Steelers while Detroit is defeating San Francisco, then a three-way tie for the top would ensue. San Francisco, Detroit and Baltimore all would have 4-2 marks.

In the Eastern Division, the Cleveland Browns, who took over undisputed possession of first place last Sunday, go against the Washington Redskins. On the face of it, the Browns should have no particular trouble, for the Redskins have won only two games while losing three.

The Giants tangle with the Green Bay Packers in Green Bay, the Los Angeles Rams entertain the Chicago Bears and the Chicago Cardinals are at home to the Philadelphia Eagles in other NFL action Sunday.

In five games, Tommy O'Connell, the Browns' first-line quarterback, has completed 57 per cent of his aerials—a respectable percentage. But he has thrown only 47, and of 30 other attempts by Browns, Milt Plum has 24 with 10 completed for a percentage of 42.

A total of 77 passes in five games compares with what the great Otto Graham used to fling in as few as two contests.

This slighting of the aerial game has meant that the enemy has jammed up on the Browns' running. To loosen up opposing defenses Coach Brown would like a passing attack that would command respect.

JOHN VALENTINE

Ex-Circleville Gridder Stars For Falcons

John Valentine, former outstanding fullback at Circleville High School, son of Mrs. Della Valentine, 280 Lewis Road, has been playing some consistant football for Bowling Green University this season.

Valentine, an All-South Central league fullback here in 1949-50, came up with a pass interception in last Saturday's game with Kent State which paved the way for a 13-7 BG win. He is remembered here for his steller play when Harold (Sandy) Hill roamed the local gridiron.

The former CHS gridder broke the Kent game open when he intercepted an aerial on the opponents' 32-yard line. Four plays later the BG squad scored what proved to be the winning touchdown.

Valentine has proved to be a mainstay on Coach Doyt Perry's highly - regarded falcons, holding down a second unit center position.

THE hard-hitting center played for Circleville under former Bowling Green All-Ohio quarterback Steve Brudzinski, one the state's top passers during the 1939-40 seasons.

Now married, Valentine makes his home in Bowling Green. He is majoring in health and physical education.

Webb Seeks More Bouts, Then Champ

NEW YORK (AP)—Spider Webb is no exception. Like all good fighters, he wants the champion. If the champ has other business pending, like Carmen Basilio and his obligation to give Ray Robinson another chance, then the Spider is willing to take on the others.

"We'll take Joey Giardello, Gene Fullmer, Charles Humez or anybody to get in there," said Webb's manager, Hec Knowles after Friday night's unanimous 10-round decision over Willie Vaughn. "All we are looking for is a chance at the title."

Some of the 2,000 who watched Webb Friday night at Madison Square Garden aren't sure the Spider from Chicago is quite ready for Basilio. In fact, a noisy minority thought he didn't beat Vaughn.

All three officials had Webb on top. Referee Barney Felix scored it 6-3-1, Judge Bert Grant 6-4 and Artie Aidala 7-3.

"I thought I should have gotten it," said Vaughn, who turned in one of his best efforts. "I thought Spider was trying to steal rounds in the last 30 seconds. I forced it. But Webb is about the best I ever fought. He's a good boxer, sharp and he throws plenty of punches."

Webb found Vaughn, a 4 to 1 underdog from Los Angeles, tougher than he expected.

"They always seem to come up for me," he said. "Just like they come up for Notre Dame. I wanted to box him more but he kept coming in all the time. He was hard to hit with a right."

Princeton Books Rites for Coach

PRINCETON, N. J. (AP)—A Memorial service on the Princeton campus Monday will mark the death of Charlie Caldwell, the university's head football coach.

The popular sports figure died of cancer in Princeton Hospital Friday. He was 56.

Caldwell's team, which he last saw five weeks ago, takes the field against Brown at Providence, R. I., today.

The Princeton team arrived at Providence by plane Friday, unaware of the death. Acting Coach Dick Colman informed the players in a private meeting.

Australia Develops Another Tennis Star

BRISBANE, Australia (AP) — Youthful Roy Emerson, playing in his first major Australian tournament, won the Queensland Tennis Championship today by crushing Neale Fraser 6-3, 6-2, 6-2.

Emerson, who had been seeded fifth, thus stamped himself as a likely member of the Aussie Davis Cup squad in the challenge round next month.

New Holland Scores 57-31 Win in Opener

NEW HOLLAND— Senior John Lininger led New Holland to an opening game basketball victory last night. The Bulldogs scored a flashy 57-31 triumph over neighboring Madison Mills of Fayette County.

Lininger came within four points of outpointing the entire Madison Mills unit. He tallied 10 field goals and seven free throws for 27 points.

New Holland had little trouble with Madison Mills. The Bulldogs took an 11-8 first period lead, then held Madison Mills to three points in the while second quarter. It was 25-11 at the half. New Holland ran up 32 points in the last half to 20 for the hapless Madison Mills unit.

The former CHS gridder broke the Kent game open when he intercepted an aerial on the opponents' 32-yard line. Four plays later the BG squad scored what proved to be the winning touchdown.

Valentine has proved to be a mainstay on Coach Doyt Perry's highly - regarded falcons, holding down a second unit center position.

THE hard-hitting center played for Circleville under former Bowling Green All-Ohio quarterback Steve Brudzinski, one the state's top passers during the 1939-40 seasons.

Now married, Valentine makes his home in Bowling Green. He is majoring in health and physical education.

Webb Seeks More Bouts, Then Champ

NEW YORK (AP)—Spider Webb is no exception. Like all good fighters, he wants the champion. If the champ has other business pending, like Carmen Basilio and his obligation to give Ray Robinson another chance, then the Spider is willing to take on the others.

"We'll take Joey Giardello, Gene Fullmer, Charles Humez or anybody to get in there," said Webb's manager, Hec Knowles after Friday night's unanimous 10-round decision over Willie Vaughn. "All we are looking for is a chance at the title."

Some of the 2,000 who watched Webb Friday night at Madison Square Garden aren't sure the Spider from Chicago is quite ready for Basilio. In fact, a noisy minority thought he didn't beat Vaughn.

All three officials had Webb on top. Referee Barney Felix scored it 6-3-1, Judge Bert Grant 6-4 and Artie Aidala 7-3.

"I thought I should have gotten it," said Vaughn, who turned in one of his best efforts. "I thought Spider was trying to steal rounds in the last 30 seconds. I forced it. But Webb is about the best I ever fought. He's a good boxer, sharp and he throws plenty of punches."

Webb found Vaughn, a 4 to 1 underdog from Los Angeles, tougher than he expected.

"They always seem to come up for me," he said. "Just like they come up for Notre Dame. I wanted to box him more but he kept coming in all the time. He was hard to hit with a right."

Princeton Books Rites for Coach

PRINCETON, N. J. (AP)—A Memorial service on the Princeton campus Monday will mark the death of Charlie Caldwell, the university's head football coach.

The popular sports figure died of cancer in Princeton Hospital Friday. He was 56.

Caldwell's team, which he last saw five weeks ago, takes the field against Brown at Providence, R. I., today.

The Princeton team arrived at Providence by plane Friday, unaware of the death. Acting Coach Dick Colman informed the players in a private meeting.

Australia Develops Another Tennis Star

BRISBANE, Australia (AP) — Youthful Roy Emerson, playing in his first major Australian tournament, won the Queensland Tennis Championship today by crushing Neale Fraser 6-3, 6-2, 6-2.

Emerson, who had been seeded fifth, thus stamped himself as a likely member of the Aussie Davis Cup squad in the challenge round next month.

New Holland had little trouble with Madison Mills. The Bulldogs took an 11-8 first period lead, then held Madison Mills to three points in the while second quarter. It was 25-11 at the half. New Holland ran up 32 points in the last half to 20 for the hapless Madison Mills unit.

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Coach Johnny Michelosen will direct the University of Pittsburgh football team through 1960 as a reward for leading the Panthers to two bowl games in his first two years at the helm.

Michelosen's teams have won 17, lost 8 and tied 1. His 1955 squad was defeated by Georgia Tech in the Sugar Bowl. The 1956 team was whipped by Georgia Tech in the Gator Bowl.

Candidates Due To Reveal Plans After Tuesday

Election Seen Date For Announcements On State Ticket

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Tuesday's election will clear the decks for announcements by candidates eager to start 1958 campaigns for congress and state offices.

Secretary of State Ted W. Brown said reports from over the state indicate that next year's election races will start much earlier than usual.

Inquiries about petitions for congress as well as for state offices, from governor on down, have been numerous. Without identifying the callers, Brown said they pointed to early announcements.

Leadoff man in the gubernatorial field was Columbus Mayor Maynard E. Sensenbrenner. He obtained petitions to qualify for the Democratic nomination in the May primaries without waiting for party state headquarters to set up a candidate screening committee.

Democratic State Chairman William L. Coleman said announcement of the committee membership would be delayed until after Tuesday's ballot counting is finished.

Second to announce for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination was Mrs. Julio Suarez, Columbus housewife, who said she felt Ohioans would like to see a woman in that office.

A Columbus attorney, Roy Hopple, former state employe in the state tax and liquor departments, obtained petitions for the Democrats nomination for lieutenant governor to make his first race for elective office.

Primary election winners next May will become finalists in the pay-off election contests next November.

Republicans holding elective state offices, from Gov. C. William O'Neill on down and most of Ohio's congressional seats, are expected to seek reelection.

An incentive for opponents will be Ohio's first four-year terms for elective state offices. Several state senators also will be elected to serve for four years. They now serve for two years.

Hopes of several potential candidates for 1958 hang on the outcome of this year's general election that carries mainly local interest.

An example is the contest between Youngstown Mayor Frank X. Kryzan, a Democrat, and his Republican opponent, G. Stanley Kreiler. Kryzan must win reelection if he expects to make the race for governor again. He was an unsuccessful gubernatorial candidate in 1956.

Another potential Democratic candidate for governor is unopposed for reelection as mayor of Cleveland. He is Anthony J. Celebrezze, former state senator.

Major interest in Tuesday's voting centers in local races for mayors of cities and villages and other officials, including councilmen. Patronage and political organization control make for intense contests in many communities.

2 Men Handed Long Sentences in Assault

CLEVELAND (AP)—For stripping, raping and robbing a 29-year-old Lakewood woman they dragged under a bridge near Cleveland Stadium Sept. 29, two men drew long sentences Friday from Judge William J. McDermott.

A 26-to-95 year term was imposed on Tommy Willie Redding, 38, a laborer with a record of 11 felony convictions. Willie R. Hill, 21, who, the judge said, "might rehabilitate himself" because his record was "not so bad," got 15 to 55 years in the reformatory.

Fraternity Pin Binding by Law

LARAMIE, Wyo. (AP)—When a University of Wyoming coed lets her best boy friend hang his fraternity pin on her, they had better mean they're really engaged.

County Atty. Lynn Rees discovered a Wyoming law which says only a man's mother, daughter, sister or the girl he's engaged to may wear his fraternity pin.

Rees said so far he knows the law has never been enforced.

"There's not enough room in our jail," he added.

N.Y. Central Answer on Trains Asked

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Utilities commission has given the New York Central Railroad 15 days to answer complaints against its action in discontinuing four trains last Sunday.

The city of Cincinnati protested against removing two Cincinnati-to-Cleveland and two Cincinnati-to-Toledo trains, while Transportation Brotherhoods and R. H. Murphy's Sons Co. of Urbana protested against removing the two Cincinnati-to-Toledo trains.

Meanwhile, C. Howard Johnson, a commission attorney examiner, took under advisement the application of the Pennsylvania Railroad to remove South Charleston in Clark County as a conditional stop for two Indianapolis to Columbus trains.

The railroad discontinued the two trains Nos. 20 and 21 Sunday, but today's hearing was made necessary because the conditional stop is that railroad's last passenger service to South Charleston.

No protests were voiced in the hearing and railroad executives testified the conditional stop was used infrequently by persons bound for Springfield. They pointed out the Pennsylvania has regular passenger service at Xenia It was no passenger service at Springfield.

Ohio Market Hog Tags Show Slight Decline

COLUMBUS (AP)—Prices paid for hogs averaged 20 cents per 100 pounds lower for the week at $16.80, the Ohio Department of Agriculture said.

Monday's opening price of $16.50 was 25 cents lower than last week's close. Tuesday and Wednesday each registered a 25 cent increase per 100 pounds to make Wednesday's price at mostly $17. Thursday's price was 25 cents lower. Friday's price and close for the week was 25 cents higher.

The first chewing gum patent was issued to W. F. Semple of Mount Vernon, Ohio in 1869.

CHECK EQUIPMENT — These four State Highway Department officials were in Circleville recently to check ice and snow removal equipment in preparation for the winter season. The group checked care and condition of equipment, safety equipment such as flares, flags and fuses. There are 10 snow-plow trucks and one V-plow, capable of removing snow drifts 8-10-feet high. The first snow probably will be between Nov. 15 and Dec. 1. The equipment will be used about 30 times during the winter. From left are George Hershey, Delaware, Division Six general superintendent; Richard Hedges, Pickaway County superintendent; Frank M. Williams, division deputy director, and W. C. Benedum, division maintenance engineer.

CHICAGO (AP) — A special committee of lawyers, judges and legal educators today urged the American Bar Assn. to retain its ban on the photographing, televising or broadcasting of court trials.

The committee contended that in spite of modern techniques, the presence of cameras and broadcasting equipment would "introduce extraneous influences which tend to have a detrimental psychological effect on the judge and the jury as well as on the litigant, his lawyers and witnesses, and to divert them from the proper objectives of the trial."

However, the committee advocated that Canon 35 of the ABA's canons of judicial ethics be revised to permit judges to authorize photographic, radio and TV coverage of strictly ceremonial courtroom proceedings.

Heretofore, such coverage has been limited to ceremonial portions of naturalization proceedings.

The proposed revision would extend coverage by all news media to include such ceremonial proceedings as the swearing in of new judges.

Among the first to criticize the report was Herbert Brucker, chairman of the Freedom of Information Committee of the American Society of Newspaper Editors.

Brucker said the proposed revision, like the present canon itself, is "built upon a premise that was true in 1937 but became false long before 1957."

"This premise," he said, "is that photography and broadcasting necessarily and automatically detract from dignity, distract witnesses, and degrade the court. This just isn't so."

"Under proper control the modern means of reporting are so unobtrusive that participants are virtually unaware of them."

The revision recommendation was made by a special committee of the American Bar Foundation, after 18 months of study of the problem.

The study, made at the request of the ABA, stemmed from criticism of the provisions of canon 35 by certain representatives of the press and radio and TV broadcasters.

The committee's report will be presented for consideration by the ABA's House of Delegates—the policy making body—at a meeting in Atlanta, Feb. 24-25.

The committee said the principal argument of the press and broadcasters was that the 1st Amendment guaranteeing freedom of the press entitled all forms of news media free access to the courtroom. These proponents also contended that modern techniques would cause little, if any, confusion or distraction.

"This argument is based on a fallacious view of the nature of those "(press) freedoms," the committee said. It quoted from a 1950 decision of the U. S. Supreme Court which said:

"The right of the public to be protected, from the evils of conduct, even though 1st Amendment rights to persons or groups are thereby in some manner infrinted, has received frequent and consistent recognition by this court."

The committee also said that the right of judges to exclude the public from certain trials has been upheld by the courts and added that the press can claim no rights not common to "every citizen."

Zanesville Man, 27, Accused in Slaying

ERIE, Pa. (AP) — A Zanesville, Ohio, man is being held without bond for grand jury action in February after pleading innocent Friday to slaying a man in a barroom brawl.

Isaac Johnson Jr., 27, got into an argument with a hotel bartender the night of Oct. 7, whipped out a pistol and began shooting wildly. Police said Frank Williams, 22, of Erie, was fatally wounded.

Normal Weather Seen For Area in November

Jehovah's Witness Prefers Army to Jail in Draft Case

CLEVELAND (AP)—A member of the Jehovah's Witness sect decided in court today to join the Army instead of going to jail.

Abraham Hofstetter, 25, who lives near Dalton in Wayne County, later told a reporter that deciding factor was that in the Army he would have a small income to help support his 60-year-old mother, Mrs. Ida Hofstetter.

He was one of seven members of the sect who were brought before Federal Judge Paul C. Weick today on charges of evading the draft. The others pleaded guilty and drew sentences of two years each.

The judge told Hofstetter that like the first two defendants, he would be given five minutes to consider his position. The judge said he did not like to impose a jail sentence without reminding the defendant of what it would mean to him in the future.

After five minutes of complete silence Judge Weick said, "have you made up you mind? You may have more time if necessary."

Hofstetter said he was ready and the judge asked for his answer

"Yes," said the defendant.

"Yes—What?" asked the judge.

"I'll go in the Army," replied Hofstetter.

The judge continued his bond and ordered the defendant to report for induction.

Lt. Col. Raymond Clouse, executive officer of the state Selective Service unit in Columbus, said it was the first case he knew of in which a member of the sect had chosen induction.

Those sentenced to jail today included Robert J. Bohland, 23, Nova.

Garb of Women On TV Rapped

Singer Says Many Look Like Bean Sack

NEW YORK (AP)—Many women television performers "are trying so hard to look natural that they come out looking like a sack of beans."

That's not this department talking. It's singer Jane Morgan, who is blonde and beautiful and does not look at all like a sack of beans. Maintaining a position of stolid male neutrality on the subject of women's clothing, we merely report what Miss Morgan tells us:

"Too many women performers are forgetting they should be show business personalities. They come on camera wearing dresses that any self-respecting housewife wouldn't wear to the grocery store."

Still quoting Miss Morgan, who makes many TV guest appearances besides producing hit records and playing night clubs:

"These women are supposed to represent the chic and glamor of America to the world — and look at them! They make thousands of dollars and wear only one cheap dress in a half-hour show. In night club performances women go to great pains and expense to create variety of costume in a half-hour performance. Personally I spend $1,000 apiece for gowns when I'm playing clubs.

"People expect and deserve to see glamor in their performers. But on television women aren't glamorous any more; they're merely casual. The American viewing public is getting gypped and it doesn't like it."

Spinal Meningitis Found in Wadsworth

WADSWORTH (AP)—Fear of an outbreak of spinal meningitis caused cancellation of a high school dance here Friday night. Gary Hoerger, 15, died in Akron Children's Hospital Friday of an illness in which the symptoms were described as similar to those of spinal meningitis. Illness of Donald Bishop, 16, another high school pupil, has been diagnosed as that disease, Medina County health officials said.

Sabina Powerhouse Is Swept by Blaze

WILMINGTON (AP) — Fire swept through the abandoned powerhouse at nearby Sabina Friday, destroying $25,000 worth of diesel generators and other gear. The Dayton Power and Light Co. deactivated the facility last summer after purchasing the Sabina power plant. Fire officials said defective wiring may have started the blaze.

This Wife Surely Needs Some Help

LANSING, Mich. (AP) — Sympathetic State Conservation Department workers responded quickly when they got this letter from a Bay City hunter:

"Dear Sirs:

"I would like to ask you for the department's game bird recipe book. You see, my wife doesn't know how to cook. She cooked the bird I shot yesterday with the feathers and insides still in it. Boy, did that taste lousy.

"If you would, please send that book and please hurry. I am going hunting tomorrow. Send the book to my wife."

Ducky Corn Granted Freedom by U.S. Judge

COLUMBUS (AP) — Ironton city councilman Dustine E. (Ducky) Corn was released from Columbus city jail Friday on orders from Federal Judge Mell G. Underwood. Corn was awaiting sentencing on his conviction of federal tax evasion. Judge Underwood ordered him released pending the filing of a motion for a new trial by defense attorneys.

Ex-Defiance City Clerk Accused in Shortage

DEFIANCE (AP) — Robert A. Crossland, fired as city clerk here Aug. 2, had a $1,494 shortage in his accounts, State Examiner Wendell F. Culler reports. Culler, in the report to Defiance County Prosecutor John E. Zimmerman and State Auditor James A. Rhodes, said Crossland has given the city a check to cover the alleged shortages.

Ginger Rogers Back in Action

No Longer Married, She's Seeking Work

NEW YORK (AP)—"I'm not married any longer, so why shouldn't I work as hard as I can? Idleness breeds mischief or depression, so I'm going to keep busy."

This was Ginger Rogers' explanation of why she is making two important moves in her career:

1. Playing her first night club since she was a kid in Galveston.

2. Returning to a stage musical for the first time since 1930.

Looking slim, trim and ageless in her hotel suite, Ginger talked about her future. Obviously her marriage to Jacques Bergerae is over, finished, dead. But she isn't moping.

"Las Vegas has been after me to play there for five years," she said. But I chose to go back to night clubs in a brand-new hotel in Havana because it was new. I'd be the first star to appear there. I'm looking for new challenges."

"Starting January 28, I begin touring for a year in the national company of 'Bells are Ringing,' she continued. "Now you might ask why I do the show when it isn't new.

"The reason is that I haven't found a script that is so ideally suited to my talents. 'Bells,' which Judge Holliday did originally—and very well—is something that fits me."

Also, she has done some TV appearances here and has several more lined up.

Candidates Due To Reveal Plans After Tuesday

Election Seen Date For Announcements On State Ticket

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Tuesday's election will clear the decks for announcements by candidates eager to start 1958 campaigns for congress and state offices.

Secretary of State Ted W. Brown said reports from over the state indicate that next year's election races will start much earlier than usual.

Inquiries about petitions for congress as well as for state offices, from governor on down, have been numerous. Without identifying the callers, Brown said they pointed to early announcements.

Leadoff man in the gubernatorial field was Columbus Mayor Maynard E. Sensenbrenner. He obtained petitions to qualify for the Democratic nomination in the May primaries without waiting for party state headquarters to set up a candidate screening committee.

Democratic State Chairman William L. Coleman said announcement of the committee membership would be delayed until after Tuesday's ballot counting is finished.

Second to announce for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination was Mrs. Julio Suarez, Columbus housewife, who said she felt Ohioans would like to see a woman in that office.

A Columbus attorney, Roy Hopple, former state employe in the state tax and liquor departments, obtained petitions for the Democrats nomination for lieutenant governor to make his first race for elective office.

Primary election winners next May will become finalists in the pay-off election contests next November.

Republicans holding elective state offices, from Gov. C. William O'Neill on down and most of Ohio's congressional seats, are expected to seek reelection.

An incentive for opponents will be Ohio's first four-year terms for elective state offices. Several state senators also will be elected to serve for four years. They now serve for two years.

Hopes of several potential candidates for 1958 hang on the outcome of this year's general election that carries mainly local interest.

An example is the contest between Youngstown Mayor Frank X. Kryzan, a Democrat, and his Republican opponent, G. Stanley Kreiler. Kryzan must win reelection if he expects to make the race for governor again. He was an unsuccessful gubernatorial candidate in 1956.

Another potential Democratic candidate for governor is unopposed for reelection as mayor of Cleveland. He is Anthony J. Celebrezze, former state senator.

Major interest in Tuesday's voting centers in local races for mayors of cities and villages and other officials, including councilmen. Patronage and political organization control make for intense contests in many communities.

2 Men Handed Long Sentences in Assault

CLEVELAND (AP)—For stripping, raping and robbing a 29-year-old Lakewood woman they dragged under a bridge near Cleveland Stadium Sept. 29, two men drew long sentences Friday from Judge William J. McDermott.

A 26-to-95 year term was imposed on Tommy Willie Redding, 38, a laborer with a record of 11 felony convictions. Willie R. Hill, 21, who, the judge said, "might rehabilitate himself" because his record was "not so bad," got 15 to 55 years in the reformatory.

Fraternity Pin Binding by Law

LARAMIE, Wyo. (AP)—When a University of Wyoming coed lets her best boy friend hang his fraternity pin on her, they had better mean they're really engaged.

County Atty. Lynn Rees discovered a Wyoming law which says only a man's mother, daughter, sister or the girl he's engaged to may wear his fraternity pin.

Rees said so far he knows the law has never been enforced.

"There's not enough room in our jail," he added.

N.Y. Central Answer on Trains Asked

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Utilities commission has given the New York Central Railroad 15 days to answer complaints against its action in discontinuing four trains last Sunday.

The city of Cincinnati protested against removing two Cincinnati-to-Cleveland and two Cincinnati-to-Toledo trains, while Transportation Brotherhoods and R. H. Murphy's Sons Co. of Urbana protested against removing the two Cincinnati-to-Toledo trains.

Meanwhile, C. Howard Johnson, a commission attorney examiner, took under advisement the application of the Pennsylvania Railroad to remove South Charleston in Clark County as a conditional stop for two Indianapolis to Columbus trains.

The railroad discontinued the two trains Nos. 20 and 21 Sunday, but today's hearing was made necessary because the conditional stop is that railroad's last passenger service to South Charleston.

No protests were voiced in the hearing and railroad executives testified the conditional stop was used infrequently by persons bound for Springfield. They pointed out the Pennsylvania has regular passenger service at Xenia It was no passenger service at Springfield.

Ohio Market Hog Tags Show Slight Decline

COLUMBUS (AP)—Prices paid for hogs averaged 20 cents per 100 pounds lower for the week at $16.80, the Ohio Department of Agriculture said.

Monday's opening price of $16.50 was 25 cents lower than last week's close. Tuesday and Wednesday each registered a 25 cent increase per 100 pounds to make Wednesday's price at mostly $17. Thursday's price was 25 cents lower. Friday's price and close for the week was 25 cents higher.

The first chewing gum patent was issued to W. F. Semple of Mount Vernon, Ohio in 1869.

CHECK EQUIPMENT — These four State Highway Department officials were in Circleville recently to check ice and snow removal equipment in preparation for the winter season. The group checked care and condition of equipment, safety equipment such as flares, flags and fuses. There are 10 snow-plow trucks and one V-plow, capable of removing snow drifts 8-10-feet high. The first snow probably will be between Nov. 15 and Dec. 1. The equipment will be used about 30 times during the winter. From left are George Hershey, Delaware, Division Six general superintendent; Richard Hedges, Pickaway County superintendent; Frank M. Williams, division deputy director, and W. C. Benedum, division maintenance engineer.

CHICAGO (AP) — A special committee of lawyers, judges and legal educators today urged the American Bar Assn. to retain its ban on the photographing, televising or broadcasting of court trials.

The committee contended that in spite of modern techniques, the presence of cameras and broadcasting equipment would "introduce extraneous influences which tend to have a detrimental psychological effect on the judge and the jury as well as on the litigant, his lawyers and witnesses, and to divert them from the proper objectives of the trial."

However, the committee advocated that Canon 35 of the ABA's canons of judicial ethics be revised to permit judges to authorize photographic, radio and TV coverage of strictly ceremonial courtroom proceedings.

Heretofore, such coverage has been limited to ceremonial portions of naturalization proceedings.

The proposed revision would extend coverage by all news media to include such ceremonial proceedings as the swearing in of new judges.

Among the first to criticize the report was Herbert Brucker, chairman of the Freedom of Information Committee of the American Society of Newspaper Editors.

Brucker said the proposed revision, like the present canon itself, is "built upon a premise that was true in 1937 but became false long before 1957."

"This premise," he said, "is that photography and broadcasting necessarily and automatically detract from dignity, distract witnesses, and degrade the court. This just isn't so."

"Under proper control the modern means of reporting are so unobtrusive that participants are virtually unaware of them."

The revision recommendation was made by a special committee of the American Bar Foundation, after 18 months of study of the problem.

The study, made at the request of the ABA, stemmed from criticism of the provisions of canon 35 by certain representatives of the press and radio and TV broadcasters.

The committee's report will be presented for consideration by the ABA's House of Delegates—the policy making body—at a meeting in Atlanta, Feb. 24-25.

The committee said the principal argument of the press and broadcasters was that the 1st Amendment guaranteeing freedom of the press entitled all forms of news media free access to the courtroom. These proponents also contended that modern techniques would cause little, if any, confusion or distraction.

"This argument is based on a fallacious view of the nature of those "(press) freedoms," the committee said. It quoted from a 1950 decision of the U. S. Supreme Court which said:

"The right of the public to be protected, from the evils of conduct, even though 1st Amendment rights to persons or groups are thereby in some manner infringed, has received frequent and consistent recognition by this court."

The committee also said that the right of judges to exclude the public from certain trials has been upheld by the courts and added that the press can claim no rights not common to "every citizen."

Zanesville Man, 27, Accused in Slaying

ERIE, Pa. (AP) — A Zanesville, Ohio, man is being held without bond for grand jury action in February after pleading innocent Friday to slaying a man in a barroom brawl.

Isaac Johnson Jr., 27, got into an argument with a hotel bartender the night of Oct. 7, whipped out a pistol and began shooting wildly. Police said Frank Williams, 22, of Erie, was fatally wounded.

Normal Weather Seen For Area in November

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Weather Bureau predicts November temperatures will average about normal in the Midwest.

Precipitation is expected to exceed normal over the Northeast and also over the Great Plains. Subnormal precipitation is predicted west of the Continental Divide and in the Southeast.

Jehovah's Witness Prefers Army to Jail in Draft Case

CLEVELAND (AP)—A member of the Jehovah's Witness sect decided in court today to join the Army instead of going to jail.

Abraham Hofstetter, 25, who lives near Dalton in Wayne County, later told a reporter that deciding factor was that in the Army he would have a small income to help support his 60-year-old mother, Mrs. Ida Hofstetter.

He was one of seven members of the sect who were brought before Federal Judge Paul C. Weick today on charges of evading the draft. The others pleaded guilty and drew sentences of two years each.

The judge told Hofstetter that like the first two defendants, he would be given five minutes to consider his position. The judge said he did not like to impose a jail sentence without reminding the defendant of what it would mean to him in the future.

After five minutes of complete silence Judge Weick said, "have you made up you mind? You may have more time if necessary."

Hofstetter said he was ready and the judge asked for his answer

"Yes," said the defendant.

"Yes—What?" asked the judge.

"I'll go in the Army," replied Hofstetter.

The judge continued his bond and ordered the defendant to report for induction.

Lt. Col. Raymond Clouse, executive officer of the state Selective Service unit in Columbus, said it was the first case he knew of in which a member of the sect had chosen induction.

Those sentenced to jail today included Robert J. Bohland, 23, Nova.

Garb of Women On TV Rapped

Singer Says Many Look Like Bean Sack

NEW YORK (AP)—Many women television performers "are trying so hard to look natural that they come out looking like a sack of beans."

That's not this department talking. It's singer Jane Morgan, who is blonde and beautiful and does not look at all like a sack of beans. Maintaining a position of stolid male neutrality on the subject of women's clothing, we merely report what Miss Morgan tells us:

"Too many women performers are forgetting they should be show business personalities. They come on camera wearing dresses that any self-respecting housewife wouldn't wear to the grocery store."

Still quoting Miss Morgan, who makes many TV guest appearances besides producing hit records and playing night clubs:

"These women are supposed to represent the chic and glamor of America to the world — and look at them! They make thousands of dollars and wear only one cheap dress in a half-hour show. In night club performances women go to great pains and expense to create variety of costume in a half-hour performance. Personally I spend $1,000 apiece for gowns when I'm playing clubs.

"People expect and deserve to see glamor in their performers. But on television women aren't glamorous any more; they're merely casual. The American viewing public is getting gypped and it doesn't like it."

Spinal Meningitis Found in Wadsworth

WADSWORTH (AP)—Fear of an outbreak of spinal meningitis caused cancellation of a high school dance here Friday night. Gary Hoerger, 15, died in Akron Children's Hospital Friday of an illness in which the symptoms were described as similar to those of spinal meningitis. Illness of Donald Bishop, 16, another high school pupil, has been diagnosed as that disease, Medina County health officials said.

Sabina Powerhouse Is Swept by Blaze

WILMINGTON (AP) — Fire swept through the abandoned powerhouse at nearby Sabina Friday, destroying $25,000 worth of diesel generators and other gear. The Dayton Power and Light Co. deactivated the facility last summer after purchasing the Sabina power plant. Fire officials said defective wiring may have started the blaze.

This Wife Surely Needs Some Help

LANSING, Mich. (AP) — Sympathetic State Conservation Department workers responded quickly when they got this letter from a Bay City hunter:

"Dear Sirs:

"I would like to ask you for the department's game bird recipe book. You see, my wife doesn't know how to cook. She cooked the bird I shot yesterday with the feathers and insides still in it. Boy, did that taste lousy.

"If you would, please send that book and please hurry. I am going hunting tomorrow. Send the book to my wife."

Ducky Corn Granted Freedom by U.S. Judge

COLUMBUS (AP) — Ironton city councilman Dustine E. (Ducky) Corn was released from Columbus city jail Friday on orders from Federal Judge Mell G. Underwood. Corn was awaiting sentencing on his conviction of federal tax evasion. Judge Underwood ordered him released pending the filing of a motion for a new trial by defense attorneys.

Ex-Defiance City Clerk Accused in Shortage

DEFIANCE (AP) — Robert A. Crossland, fired as city clerk here Aug. 2, had a $1,494 shortage in his accounts, State Examiner Wendell F. Culler reports. Culler, in the report to Defiance County Prosecutor John E. Zimmerman and State Auditor James A. Rhodes, said Crossland has given the city a check to cover the alleged shortages.

Ginger Rogers Back in Action

No Longer Married, She's Seeking Work

NEW YORK (AP)—"I'm not married any longer, so why shouldn't I work as hard as I can? Idleness breeds mischief or depression, so I'm going to keep busy."

This was Ginger Rogers' explanation of why she is making two important moves in her career:

1. Playing her first night club since she was a kid in Galveston.

2. Returning to a stage musical for the first time since 1930.

Looking slim, trim and ageless in her hotel suite, Ginger talked about her future. Obviously her marriage to Jacques Bergerae is over, finished, dead. But she isn't moping.

"Las Vegas has been after me to play there for five years," she said. But I chose to go back to night clubs in a brand-new hotel in Havana because it was new. I'd be the first star to appear there. I'm looking for new challenges."

"Starting January 28, I begin touring for a year in the national company of 'Bells are Ringing,' she continued. "Now you might ask why I do the show when it isn't new.

"The reason is that I haven't found a script that is so ideally suited to my talents. 'Bells,' which Judge Holliday did originally—and very well—is something that fits me."

Also, she has done some TV appearances here and has several more lined up.
